Song of the Day

FLY ME TO THE MOON

By frank Sinatra

Fly me to the moon
Let me play among the stars
Let me see what spring is like on a-Jupiter and Mars

In other words, hold my hand
In other words, baby, kiss me

Fill my heart with song
And let me sing for ever more
You are all I long for
All I worship and adore

In other words, please be true
In other words, I love you

Fill my heart with song
Let me sing for evermore
You are all I long for
All I worship and adore

In other words, please be true
In other words
In other words
I love you

From the President

Pres. Garrick Ang

Happy New Year fellow Pasig Rotarians!

Thank you for your continuous support for the 1st half of this Rotary year. As we begin the year 2022, my wish is for continuous health and happiness for you and your loved ones, as the surge for Omicron and other new covid variant continue to affect our daily lives. May our club also continue to be a blessing for our communities and our society.

We are finally in the month when we celebrate our 51st anniversary and beyond. The committee and your Board decided to hold our celebration in pure virtual via zoom this January 21, 2022. But we will have a grand face-to-face celebration in the months to come when it's safe again.

I like to thank those who contributed to our Odette Relief Fund. We coordinated through our partnership with Balay Mindanaw and so far adopted the heavily damaged Barangay Boa of Cagdianan, Dinagat Island made up of 154 families. We have distributed rice, canned goods, water and tarpaulins for temporary roof and shelter. We will continue to follow through with this relief effort.

Thank you and see you all in our upcoming exciting and memorable celebration!

Let us continue to pray for PP Ed's full recovery from his recent medical procedure. And to all Rotarians that we continue to be protected from the new covid variant Omicron.

Stay safe and healthy, fellow Rotarians.

Sincerely yours,

Garrick Ang
Life Changing President

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

More than the pandemic, the holidays gave us a two weeks grace period. After Alert Level was placed at 2, it was a trial to see if things will improve but it worsened. Now we are in Alert Level 3 once again. And worldwide, this virus is spreading. So the very important Club affair of same subject, anniversary will suffer twice. We hope that before the term of Pres Garrick is over, we can batch all the important events and hold a truly great one.

Decades ago on a major blood project, our first one million pesos donation came from Rtn Flor. Quietly, he injects very urgent matters when we are not taking issues the way he is feeling out. The huge amount he gave for the typhoon victims of Visayas-Mindanao shows how steady a citizen the guy is. Lately, PRID Raffy left with huge balikbayan boxes for the Rotary convention where he is to generate additional contributions from the Rotary world for the huge and massive destruction the typhoons have wrought on a helpless republic.

We are faced with a presidential election in the midst of this Covid menace. Even a retired Chief Justice and a retired Associate Justice of our Supreme Court have been saying a certain candidate is not qualified to run. But a seemingly simple issue to decide on, Comelec is slow in deciding.

PRID Raffy and PP Peter bought books of our Rtn Alex for giveaways or gifts for proper occasions and in a way help in Rtn Alex's senatorial bid. Though he is easily one of the best qualified, one of the least qualified, an actor is in the win column in every survey. Can his Alfeo Piedad give us even in text messages how we can effectively help. All reelectionists have a tremendous media advantage. Those who excelled before and rested on one election season are poised for a return try. There are four of them plus a former Vice President now seeking a senatorial post. So tight the race, so the more we are tasked to see how to help.

Covid, anyone? Except for Rtn Kel Pascual who died on the first day of his getting it, all the others, Rotarians or relatives survived. A nice survival story is that of the entire family of our District Governor Augie Soliman. He suspected that he got it from a Rotaract meeting before Christmas and on Christmas as day one, one by one and later by two, his family members. This included his son soon to take over as president of his Rotary club this July and three infants from 1 to 5 years old. They are all well now.

A leading doctor said not to discard your face shield as an extra layer of protection. A little caution may go a long way.

PP Peter John was still hoping for an actual anniversary celebration at the Tanay Deck when we met after the usual Sunday mass. But after the alert level was raised to 3, he gave up on the idea. But a little small time fellowship for our club members. Don't be only on TV for your Sunday masses at our home. We have here at VVCC mass every Sunday at 11:30 am at the Tanay Deck. A few minutes of chat is good for fellowship after. Also, if you want a live mass, ask PE Bong for the Holy Family Church schedule.

Flash: Zoom in on January 10 at 8:00 pm when our star, Rtn Alex will be featured in KKK or Kamustahan at Kuwentuhan sa Katipunan. This is hosted by Dr. Clar Ligen and M. Revilles. Meeting ID: 973 8384 3312. Passcode: 276338

ROTARY PROJECTS AROUND THE GLOBE

JANUARY 2022

United States

In September, the Rotary Club of Novato, California, celebrated the opening of a community center, the culmination of an effort that began in 2007 with a bequest of $5 million by longtime member Bill Jonas. The club worked with the College of Marin to construct a 15,600-square-foot complex on the college's Indian Valley campus. The center houses a banquet space with the capacity for hundreds of guests, a kitchen, and a stage equipped with the latest audiovisual equipment. The club, whose contribution covered about one-third of the project's total cost, obtained a 75-year lease as well as naming rights for its benefactors, the late Bill and Adele Jonas, and now holds its meetings at the center. "It was a long-term challenge, but we didn't give up," says Sonia Seeman, a co-chair of the project's planning committee.

Antigua and Barbuda

The pleasant climate in the Leeward Islands might delight sun-seeking vacationers, but for residents, severe drought in recent years has led to rationing and a reliance on desalinated water. To make the most of the water that is available, the Rotaract Club of Antigua embarked on a project to install 12 water harvesting tanks at an association for people with disabilities. "In light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, this will encourage handwashing and proper hygiene," says past club president Ti-Anna Harris of the effort, which cost about $1,850. The club, which has 34 members, carries out an active schedule of projects. In September, members picked up trash at a local beach as part of the Save Our Shores cleanups that were carried out in conjunction with the Rotaract clubs of Mémorial des Gonaïves, Haiti, and Freetown Sunset, Sierra Leone. Other club projects include free HIV testing, professional and vocational training, a Christmas celebration, and a spelling bee.

United Kingdom

In a Rotary-supported initiative, thousands of tents that help provide protection from the elements have been distributed to people in the UK who are homeless. The lightweight one-person tents, which cost about $40 each, are intended as a short-term solution for vulnerable people in cold and wet weather. “The very first time we showed the Sleep Pod to anyone outside our small circle was when we showed it to Rotarians,” says Justin Devereux, who co-founded the Sleep Pod charity with two friends. The Rotary Club of Erdington and other District 1060 clubs provide financial support, and hundreds of Rotarians and other volunteers joined a push during the pandemic to assemble pods at home to increase the available stock. “While people still die on our streets and in our fields from hypothermia and exposure, Sleep Pod will do all we can to support people as they sleep underneath the stars,” says Devereux, “for whatever reason they find themselves there.”

Egypt

In 2019, intrigued by a pair of kestrels that were nesting across from her apartment balcony, Georgina Cole began documenting her sightings on the eBird online database. “I realized I had to learn more about all the birds around me,” says Cole, a member of the Rotary Club of Red Sea-El Gouna, which is located in a resort community on the Gulf of Suez in a region that is a stopover point for more than a million birds migrating between Europe and Africa. When a local school asked her to speak to its students, Cole created bird identification cards in English and Arabic. Encouraged by her work, which is supported by her club, the town constructed a viewing hut overlooking a wetland area. The project has expanded to educate local hoteliers about which birds can be spotted at various times of the year. “The Red Sea region thrives on tourism through marine life, with scuba diving and snorkeling,” Cole says. “Why not also birds?”

Thailand

Since the onset of the global COVID-19 pandemic, the Rotary Club of Eastern Seaboard has played a key role in more than 30 food drives. Rodney Charman, a past president, says the club is a go-to player in Pattaya, a seaside community that has been hit especially hard by lockdowns. “Without tourism,” says Charman, “taxi drivers, hotel workers, and bar staff are all out of work, and some are living on the streets or in shelters.” The club coordinates with a local food bank and social services organizations and works with police to distribute needed items. To prepare for a large distribution event in August, five club members spent three days shopping for, transporting, and packaging grocery items into 400 kits consisting of a cooked meal of chicken and rice, and bags containing items such as rice, eggs, water, tins of fish, cooking oil, and face masks. The team reprised the effort in subsequent months.
