Song of the Day

I LEFT MY HEART IN SAN FRANCISCO

I left my heart, in San Francisco
Sa Del Monte Quezon City
Nandun ang unang jowa ko
Nung bata pa ako
Pero wala pong nangyari
Saying lang

Enjoy kami, sa San Francisco
Sa Del Monte, Quezon City
Pero nong pakitaan na
Hindi pala obra
Lalaki rin pala siya

Pagpunta ko sayo
Sa nFrancisco
Sobrang sira, ang utak ko.

Lungkot ako, sa San Francisco, sa Del Monte
Quezon City
Pero nag pursigi ako
Tuloy ang buhay ko
Hope for the best, muna ako

Sunod naman Babae na
Panginoon, ang ganda nya

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

When PRID Raffy announced he was bringing lechon and hard drinks last April 21, a day before his birthday, he did not realize that daughter Nana whose birthday was yesterday made sure that for long life, there must be noodles. It was superb as well but he could not tell from where Nana ordered it. PDG Benny Ricafort from our first daughter club joined us and so too DG Augie Soliman who appealed for more attendance for the Discon on May 6 & 7. PGA did not mention who is our chair for the Discon participation. His set of officers and all baby Rotarians are expected to attend. It will be a nice chance for district fellowship, the first grand affair after the pandemic. Is the Republic of Pasig accepting the personal invitation of no less than the governor? Not the Discon chair?

PP Peter in his April 21 Tidbits honored additionally one of the greatest president of our club. Sometime last week, the golfers had a golfing fellowship in Laguna also in memory of HOF/PP Rhett. And Pres. Garrick donated the lechon.

HOF/PP Conrad selected a group of our club's oldtimers for placements for one year a minimum of P50,000 per Rotarian for the expanded lending operations of our credit cooperative which he is successfully handling. The response was too great. This Saturday will be a nice project on how to earn extra on food undertakings. Thru Rtn Fr. Vincent, we are holding a presentation at the Social Hall of his parish. I heard from the usual reliable sources that Fr. Vincent is not just a good singer but a good dancer as well. Sample? Why not a good response to the solo in the community singing by our dear PRID Raffy? Birthday Boy siya kaya he honored us by singing What a Wonderful World, his signature song.

Rotary Notes

Continuation 1.

One of the very rare meeting even before zoom came into being was the surfacing of Rtn Ben. He and Rtn Manfred are so rare in Rotary meetings as their main areas of operations are always the golf courses.

We had a very good guest speaker the other week. Alan German, no he is a Filipino, a distinguished son of an equally distinguished father and known to practically all of us oldtimer, the Great Reli. Alan has taken over the business and he is doing quite well. It was a pity I was attending to another event across at Estancia that I was not able to finish his talk. I understand PP Ferd did not avail of his Q&A franchise. Not anymore?

This coming Monday will be the elections already. Our Alex seems to be ahead in many surveys and on the local front, our Roman is way ahead. Vico's opponent is banking on his being a Caruncho (is there still magic in his black magic?). And we have at least 2 candidate councilors who may need our support. Eric Gonzales is the son of a former member, a ROY, Jun Gonzales. And he carried additional privilege card being the nephew of PP Peter and PPA Celia. Simon Tantoco is the nephew of our Cong Roman. There is Raymundo, a grand nephew of former member, the late Mayor Mario Raymundo. It is not a space filler but if we help in some extra ways these kind people via text, phone calls, we could have more people around us that can help us as well.

EUROPEAN ROTARACT CLUBS ORGANIZE TO HELP UKRAINIAN REFUGEES

Within hours of Russia's invasion of Ukraine in late February 2022, Iryna Bushmina fled her home in Kyiv. Along with her sister and her three-month-old nephew, she journeyed to Vienna, Austria, staying with Rotary members along the way. Their generosity inspired Bushmina, a member of the Rotaract Club of Kyiv-City and the district Rotaract representative for Ukraine, to organize a larger-scale relief effort — and now, an online platform she created has helped Rotaract and Rotary members find shelter for thousands of Ukrainian refugees.

Across Europe, Rotaract members are using digital tools to share information and coordinate to help people who have been affected by the war in Ukraine. By routing communications through the European Rotaract Information Centre (also known as Rotaract Europe), a multidistrict information organization that serves clubs in more than 40 countries, these young members are using the power of Rotary's global network to direct aid where it's needed most.

Shortly after the war began, Christiane Leitner, the president of Rotaract Europe, learned about a project that was already underway to help Ukrainians. Led by the Rotaract Club of Klagenfurt-Wörthersee, Austria, Rotaractors coordinated using the Rotaract Europe website, then packed five vans and cars full of relief supplies and drove through the night to the Polish-Ukrainian border, where local Rotaractors were waiting to deliver the aid.

"This really stood out to me as an example of how quickly our Rotary network can make things happen," says Leitner, a member of the Rotaract Club of Linz, Austria. After learning about dozens of Rotaract initiatives that started within a week of the invasion, she realized that Rotaract Europe could play a key role in coordinating communication among Rotaract and Rotary clubs and districts and facilitating partnerships that could lead to projects.

Rotaract Europe leaders have compiled information for refugees as well as for volunteers on their website under the heading United for Peace. As Bushmina worked to create a housing-specific platform called Spaces for Ukraine, she used the United for Peace webpage to post information and a form to match refugees with hosts. The page also offers updates about projects in neighboring countries, information about free rail, bus, and air transportation available to refugees, and tips for helping people at the border. There are lists of needed supplies and options for making donations as well.

"Rotaract clubs have the chance to get an overview of what's going on in and around Ukraine, and then decide what projects they can help implement," Leitner says. "We want to make it as easy as possible for our members to connect and collaborate."

Leitner and other leaders of Rotaract Europe meet weekly over Zoom with Rotaract representatives from each European country to exchange ideas and share updates about projects. These meetings have helped foster better communication and organization, she says.

Since it began as a coalition of clubs in 1988, Rotaract Europe has focused on sharing information about Rotaract activities across borders. But the effort to help Ukrainians is different, Leitner says: "We are being much more proactive than in the past. The passion and energy of Rotaractors are really motivating us to do more."

PRID Yinka served his District as District Governor in 2011-2012 and during his year as Governor, the District raised over a $1,000,000 U.S. which contributed to the District (9140 at the time) being one of the top three performing Districts in the world, and was recognized as such at the Rotary International Convention in Bangkok, Thailand in 2012. This led to continued growth in the District which resulted in the District being split into two Districts in July of 2017.
