From the President

Pres. Bernard Dy

Good day, fellow Pasig Rotarians,

Today, we will hear directly from PRID Raffy as he shares his insights on the perplexing cancellation of Manila as the host city for the 2028 RI Convention. As we listen and form our own opinions, let us also strive to unite as the Rotary Club of Pasig, grounded in the principles of the 4-Way Test. May this guide us in our discernment and decision-making, individually and as one Club, especially during these challenging times in Rotary.

Despite the uncertainties, we should remain committed to the values that should never change. Our activities and programs, particularly our legacy projects that make a lasting impact on our community, must continue.

On that note, I would like to announce and seek your full support for our hosting of the District Federation Golf Tournament on September 26, 2024, at the Riviera Golf and Country Club. This event is one of our club's main fundraising project, enabling us to deliver our initiatives with efficiency and maximum impact. We ask once again for your generous contribution of Time, Talent, and Treasure to ensure the success of this important event.

Yours in Rotary Service,

Bernardo “Dody” Dy
President, Rotary Club of Pasig

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

Tinig congratulates our PP Garrick for his masterful presentation in the Public Image Seminar of our Rotary District. You made the club proud Garrick and carry on!

The defense of classification of baby Rotarian Jojo Estolano last week and his bringing in prospective members is an indication that we are growing as a club and in the process increasing the number of our young bloods. Earlier this week, an active member of this young group, Dir Tet celebrated his birthday with great fanfare and colors too. Kasi young blood. And speaking of further youngering, PP Peter brought in for possible membership the son of our former member, the late Nards Cansana. Rtn Konsi Simon is part of this group.

Two months ago, we lost the lady of our first club govenor, Mita at age 92. A month short of 92, we lost PPA Boots Tayengco who died happily after a short illness. The bereaved widower, PP Bert was truly devastated and totally lost in disbelief. The two daughters, both Cana da based where at her bedside and Boots smiled and left them. Before she went, she pinched Bert with a hard one to bade him take care/ And the dazed Bert can only smile as he looked at the dried blood on his wrist.

A cold sentence was what Bert got. With no one left behind here, Bert who is always in a jacket as he dislikes cold surroundings must relocate with his daughters to Canada. But a bigger problem will be how to sell their house which they tried but failed before Boots left. It will be harder now with documentations and added costs.

Rotary Notes

Continuation 1.

I hope it is not late for the telephone brigade to have have our first evening meeting this Rotary year to wear our Rotary jacket. Our PRID Raffy will share with us a valuable behind the scene possible reasons for the withdrawing of the Rotary International Convention here in the country. It will push to the test our resolve as a club to push our achiever Raffy to the presidency of Rotary International, With a Korean as president elect chances for another Rotary Asian leader may be truly affected. May Raffy's wisdom that he must have shared with the Rotarians from RC Manila enrich us also.

Two of our very active Rotarians are so busy making their rounds to make our story as a club. The coffee table book that Rtn Mads and Rtn Dante are preparing is not an easy job.. But it seems they are on top of the situation.

Two wakes of nonagenarians. A few months' back was Lady Mita and last week was of PPA Boots. Both are very slim figures and both led colorful lives. Based on the fact that Mita's Mike was very long gone and Boot's Bert was around plus the fact that Boots had a huge spiritual group in the Oasis of Love, the numbers were staggering in the funeral home. Incidentally, they had the same place for the wake and the funeral mass. Two of us PPs and three PPAs were around but the huge Oasis group were so much over powering in songs and praises. .May their souls rest in peace.

The Filipinos' Resiliency

The biblical passage, “Believe in the Lord your God, and you will be able to stand firm. Believe in his prophets, and you will succeed. (2 Chronicles 20:20)” reminded of what to us, Filipinos, the past weeks. Recently, we were severely hit by Typhoon Carina that flooded most parts of the country. But recently too we rejoiced at the victory of our fellowman, Carlos Yulo, for winning two Olympic gold medals in the Men’s Gymnastics held in Paris, France. So, what did those two news have in common.

They simply reflected our capacity for resiliency. It would seem that problems or crises don’t bother us. A shanty or shabby house in a depressed area or informal settlement will be instantly rebuilt after being hit by fire or typhoon. People resumed doing their usual business along one street in Manila after being flooded for days as if nothing happened. And an old lady resumes going to church to pray after surviving many years ago from a cancer. We Filipinos are not strong physically, I believe. We only know how not to give up in life.

This resiliency of ours will only become stronger if we put our faith in God. No matter what church or religion we belong to, as long as we believe in God Who will never abandon us for those who have faith in Him, we will always come out victorious in the end. So, let’s keep on praying and keep alive our faith in Him for we find our reason to live and fight our challenges in life in Whom we pray to.
