Song of the Day

ANG PASKO AY SUMAPIT

Ang Pasko ay sumapit
Tayo ay mangagsi-awit
Ng magagandang himig
Dahil sa Diyos ay siyang pag-ibig.

Nang si Kristo'y isilang
May tatlong haring nagsidalaw
At ang bawa't isa ay nagsipaghandog
Ng tanging alay.

Bagong Taon ay magbagong-buhay
Nang lumigaya ang ating bayan
Tayo'y magsikap upang makamtan
Natin ang kasaganahan.

Tayo'y mangagsi-awit
Habang ang mundo'y tahimik
Ang araw ay sumapit
Ng sanggol na dulot ng langit

Tayo ay magmahalan
Ating sundin ang gintong aral
At magbuhat ngayon
Kahit hindi Pasko ay magbigayan!

SANTA CLAUS IS COMING TO TOWN

You better watch out
You better not cry
Better not pout
I'm telling you why
Santa Claus is coming to town

He's making a list
And checking it twice
Gonna find out Who's naughty and nice
Santa Claus is coming to town

Repeat

He sees you when you're sleeping
He knows when you're awake
He knows if you've been bad or good
So be good for goodness sake!

You better not cry
Better not pout
I'm telling you why
Santa Claus is coming to town

Song of the Day

SILVER BELLS

City sidewalks, busy sidewalks.
Dressed in holiday style
In the air, There's a feeling of Christmas
Children laughing, People passing
Meeting smile after smile and on every street corner you'll hear

Silver bells, silver bells
It's Christmas time in the city
Ring-a-ling, hear them sing
Soon it will be Christmas day

Strings of street lights
Even stop lights
Blink a bright red and green
As the shoppers rush
home with their treasures

Hear the snow crunch, See the kids bunch
This is Santa's big scene
And above all this bustle
You'll hear

Silver bells, silver bells
It's Christmas time in the city
Ring-a-ling, hear them sing
Soon it will be Christmas day

Song of the Day

JINGLE BELLS

Dashing through the snow, In a one-horse open sleigh
O'er the fields we go, Laughing all the way
Bells on bobtail ring', Making spirits bright
What fun it is to ride and sing
A sleighing song tonight!

Jingle bells, jingle bells,, Jingle all the way.
Oh! what fun it is to ride, In a one-horse open sleigh.
Jingle bells, jingle bells,, Jingle all the way;
Oh! what fun it is to ride, In a one-horse open sleigh.

A day or two ago, I thought I'd take a ride
And soon, Miss Fanny Bright, Was seated by my side,
The horse was lean and lank, Misfortune seemed his lot
He got into a drifted bank, And then we got upset.

Now the ground is white, Go it while you're young,
Take the girls tonight and sing this sleighing song;
Just get a bobtailed bay, Two forty as his speed
Hitch him to an open sleigh
And crack! Yo

From the President

Pres. Bernard Dy

Merry Christmas, Rotary Family!

As we gather today to celebrate the merriest season of the year, let us reflect on the real reason for the season and how we, as a club, have come together to embody His message of love and hope. Be proud of what we have achieved—and continue to achieve—through our collective dedication and service.

Some of our proudest accomplishments this year include:

- The countless lives we've touched five days a week through the Ilugin Community Center, guided by the leadership of Service Projects Director Tet Mallare and PP Jess Acantilado.
- The hope and livelihood provided by the Luxid-RCP Micro-Finance Cooperative, led by President HOF Conrad Cuesta.
- The Alfabasa Program, spearheaded by PP John Javier, which now serves over 2,000 students and has been integrated into the curriculum of several Pasig DepEd schools.
- The motivation and inspiration we give to 92 Pasig scholars through our Scholarship Program, under Next Generation Director Gary Ona.
- Our steadfast response to disasters, bringing relief and support to countless families.

And these are just a few of the many ways we've made an impact. Together, we have kept the spirit of service alive, and

From the President

Pres. Bernard Dy

Continuation 1.

I'm sure there are even more stories of hope and change we could share.

This season of gratitude reminds us that the true spirit of Christmas shines brightly in all that we do. I am deeply thankful for each of you—for your unwavering commitment to service and for the fellowship that makes our club a family.

As we look forward to future projects with enthusiasm, let us carry this spirit of love and hope into the New Year, continuing to inspire change and spread goodwill wherever we go.

May your homes be filled with laughter, your hearts with peace, and your days with meaning. Enjoy the festivities, cherish your loved ones, and keep the Rotary spirit alive!

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

The annual Christmas Party of our Rotary club is a sign of good partnership with our spouses and HOF/PP Peter was uneasy that many of our younger Rotarians are not bringing their spouses. Once, the strength of our club was based on the support of our Association of the Rotary Anns of Pasig (ARAP). Hindi na Rotary Anns ang tawag sa kanila but rightfully, spouses. The oldies are here to support but only a few of the younger ones texted they will be coming solo. The Pangkat system has not been tapped for this. Let this be a friendly reminder to the Board and the Pangkats. We still have a chance to make up this January, on our 54th Charter Anniversary. We missed ou on the Memorial Day and again, this Christmas Party. Let us not totally fail this January!

Tinig congratulates our very own B/Gen Gene on his recent promotion with a belated birthday greetings. By tonight, we will know how effective his morale boosting talk with the UP basketball team if UP won the championship last night. Or extended to another game by the powers of the prayer of PP RJ. Since cheering champion na kayo, sa amin naman itong basketball trophy.

I, as a Pasig senior am thankful to Mayor Vico for the 3K pamasko. Those registered in Pasig can claim in your own barangay your pamasko as well. If you fail to get, go to the Pasigueno Center near the City Hall to verify.

One thing nice about writing this column, you can use for your own concerns basta in the world of Rotary and in our club particularly. There was a copy of the Tinig of old featuring Rotarian members.

Rotary Notes

Continuation 1.

I saw those with PP Topax and mine when we were new members. Nostalgia lang, where can I get a copy? I joined the Rotary Club of Pasig before martial law in March of 1972 with two others inducted the same time but both now deceased, PP Lino Concepcion and Tony Guevara. The same year, martial law was declared and then PP Teddy Yabut in charge of media and TV affairs of martial law made me the model of Bagong Lipunan. In print, on radio and eventually in TV when reopened. I was all over. Most of the movie houses in Mindanao their projection screens had many holes as many were shooting at my image everytime it was shown. I do not know if there was a talent fee though as Teddy did not tell me.

I followed in membership PRID Raffy and the late PIP Ayc Santos soon after the charter members. Only two are with us now, PPs Peping and Arjan. So to continue the nostalgic recollection, same year of joining, I was discovery as we failed to go home from a late dinner at the mansion of the late PP Lino and PPA Patsy. As we were singing Christmas songs when they discovered my monotone singing. The only consolation I got for my singing come from Rtn Nesty Carolina, years later. PP Benny he said, "kung binigyan ka ni Lord ng good voice, binigay na sa iyong lahat ang blessings." Galing mo Nesty. I stopped my voice lessons. Part of Rotary recollection, in 1985, I was already a PP but president of Pharmaceuticals and Healthcare Association of the Philippines consisting of all pharmaceutical companies. Then the late PRID Paeng Hechanova whose brother-in-law was running for PCCI director was asking me to solicit proxies but the president of a major bank told me to give all the proxies to him but you run for director at panalo ka na with our proxies. Paeng's bayaw failed. I won.

Keep the Buzz going to fight polio

Unexpected bumps fail to dampen an epic road trip around Europe in an electric VW Buzz

Bashar Asfour is no stranger to ambitious road trips. He's managed the course for an annual motorsport rally through the desert in his home country of Jordan — before there was Google Maps. He's had a passport since he was 4, traveled through 57 countries, and, as a polio survivor who has difficulty walking, is an ace driver himself. So, he was confident about organizing his own road odyssey around Europe last year to raise money for polio eradication.

He even had a cool ride picked out: a VW Bus. Not the classic version, but Volkswagen's modern electric one, known as the Buzz. At times, however, the Buzz turned out to be more of a buzzkill. "Charging the car was a real hassle," Asfour says, recalling charging stations that were fussy, slow, miles out of his way, or that wouldn't accept his credit card. "The trip took 54 days, 12,342 kilometers, hundreds of hours of driving, and hundreds of hours charging the car!"

Thankfully, the longtime Rotarian, who currently lives in Jordan but is forming an e-club based out of Georgia, made it to the finish line, raised an estimated $277,000 (preliminary figure), and — astoundingly — missed only one of his 48 fundraising events. He also had a grand adventure, met some incredible people, and was awestruck by the kindness of strangers. Here, in his own words, are some of the stories from the 2023 My Journey to End Polio, which began in Berlin on 31 August.

Walking the Avenues

PP Jun C. Zafra

BREMEN, Germany, 2 September

When the Buzz, with its bright paint job and End Polio Now logos, is displayed in the historic town center, it generates quite the buzz as passersby stop to ask what I'm doing or ask about polio. Later in this journey, other Rotary districts will do the same, putting the Buzz in the middle of marketplaces and old town plazas for a few hours to show people the good that Rotary is doing in the world. Many people in this part of the world have forgotten about polio, and it's important to remind them that it remains a problem and we need their support still.

MILAN, 13 September

One of the biggest challenges of this journey is fatigue. I'm driving a minimum of six hours a day and sometimes as many as 13. Crossing the Alps from Switzerland to Italy, I discover a time-saving tunnel is closed, forcing me to drive over the mountains — and to charge the car even more. In Italy, charging stations are very difficult to find. On the positive side, there's a gala dinner with a large crowd waiting for me in Monza, outside of Milan. And later, there's an even larger crowd — the biggest of the trip — in Rome. While there, I will pass by the Colosseum, one of many extraordinary landmarks on the route.

IZMIR, Turkey, 25 September

Crossing the Aegean Sea from Greece to Turkey — with a VW Buzz — is no easy feat. The first ferry takes hours. I arrive at an island at midnight to catch another boat with just enough room for the Buzz. The sea is choppy and every bump sets off the car alarm. I arrive at a port near Izmir, only to have customs hold the Buzz hostage. At last, a Rotary incoming district governor bails me and the Buzz out. Beyond the gates, I am amazed to find two dozen Rotarians and Rotaractors in End Polio Now T-shirts greeting me warmly. The memory brings tears to my eyes. It was so beautiful. I forgot all the troubles I had.

Walking the Avenues

ANKARA, Turkey, 28 September

ISTANBUL, 1 October

The hospitality of the Turkish people is exquisite. This is another beautiful moment. Before reaching Ankara, I pull into a rest area and am surrounded by a motorcade of Rotary members in End Polio Now vests riding motorcycles. They escort me into the capital. The people are so generous. After discovering that my credit card wouldn't work at charging stations in the country, Rotary clubs call on their members to meet me on highways to charge me up. Some even invite me to lunch. Then, as I leave the country, I'm allowed to cross the border into Bulgaria like a VIP, without any delays. Once inside Bulgaria, a police escort is waiting to take me to my next stop, Stara Zagora. These moments I will never forget.

Spread the Word

“Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger (Luke 2:10-12).”

This was the message uttered by the angel to the shepherds who were tending their flock in the evening. The angel shared to them the good news that the promised Savior has been born as promised by God through the prophets. Come to think of it, the promise of a Savior to be born in the line of King David has been long prophesied to the Israelites yet only to the shepherds, who were among the poor people at that time, was first revealed this news of this birth. What does it mean? Moreover what does it mean to us?

I believe that we, who are beneficiaries of God’s manifold graces, should become messengers of God, just like the angels did to the shepherds. In a society ruled by corruption, deceit, and indifference, let’s spread our message about integrity, honesty, and love (especially for the poor). We do this by our actions like being honest in our relationships with one another, being responsible and accountable to everything entrusted to us up to the last cent, and sharing what we have to those in need out of our generosity. In this way, we slowly help build each other and lead them to God regardless of the religion or churches we belong to. Moreover, this is how we celebrate Christmas or the Yuletide Season.

So, let’s spread the Word, and the Word with a capita “W” is none other than Jesus, the Word of God made flesh and a God who became man like us to be with us (Cf. Phil. 2:5-7)
