Invocation

Heavenly Father,

We thank You for gathering us together in the spirit of Christmas a season of light, hope, and goodwill. As Rotarians and as brothers in service, we are grateful for the gift of fellowship, for friendships strengthened, and for the opportunity to serve others beyond ourselves.

We thank You for the blessings You have entrusted to us: our families, our work, our health, and the freedom to lead with integrity. May the message of Christmas the coming of Your Son, the Prince of Peace renew our hearts with humility, generosity, and compassion.

Guide us, Lord, as men called to leadership and service. Grant us wisdom in our decisions, courage in our responsibilities, and kindness in all that we do. May our actions reflect justice, truth, and love, especially toward those who are less fortunate.

Bless this gathering, the food we are about to share, and the joy of this celebration. Keep our families safe, our friendships strong, and our Rotary mission rooted in service and unity.

We ask all this with grateful hearts, in the spirit of peace and goodwill that Christmas brings. Amen.

Song of the Day

ANG PASKO AY SUMAPIT

Ang Pasko ay sumapit
Tayo ay mangagsi-awit
Ng magagandang himig
Dahil sa Diyos ay siyang pag-ibig.

Nang si Kristo'y isilang
May tatlong haring nagsidalaw
At ang bawa't isa ay nagsipaghandog
Ng tanging alay.

Bagong Taon ay magbagong-buhay
Nang lumigaya ang ating bayan
Tayo'y magsikap upang makamtan
Natin ang kasaganahan.

Tayo'y mangagsi-awit
Habang ang mundo'y tahimik
Ang araw ay sumapit
Ng sanggol na dulot ng langit

Tayo ay magmahalan
Ating sundin ang gintong aral
At magbuhat ngayon
Kahit hindi Pasko ay magbigayan!

Song of the Day

SANTA CLAUS IS COMING TO TOWN

You better watch out
You better not cry
Better not pout
I'm telling you why
Santa Claus is coming to town

He's making a list
And checking it twice
Gonna find out Who's naughty and nice
Santa Claus is coming to town

Repeat

He sees you when you're sleeping
He knows when you're awake
He knows if you've been bad or good
So be good for goodness sake!

O! You better watch out!
You better not cry
Better not pout
I'm telling you why
Santa Claus is coming to town
Santa Claus is coming to town

Song of the Day

JINGLE BELLS

Dashing through the snow, In a one-horse open sleigh
O'er the fields we go, Laughing all the way
Bells on bobtail ring', Making spirits bright
What fun it is to ride and sing
A sleighing song tonight!

Jingle bells, jingle bells,, Jingle all the way.
Oh! what fun it is to ride, In a one-horse open sleigh.
Jingle bells, jingle bells,, Jingle all the way;
Oh! what fun it is to ride, In a one-horse open sleigh.

A day or two ago, I thought I'd take a ride
And soon, Miss Fanny Bright, Was seated by my side,
The horse was lean and lank, Misfortune seemed his lot
He got into a drifted bank, And then we got upset.

Now the ground is white, Go it while you're young,
Take the girls tonight and sing this sleighing song;
Just get a bobtailed bay, Two forty as his speed
Hitch him to an open sleigh
And crack! Yo

Song of the Day

SILVER BELLS

City sidewalks, busy sidewalks.
Dressed in holiday style
In the air, There's a feeling of Christmas
Children laughing, People passing
Meeting smile after smile
and on every street corner you'll hear

Silver bells, silver bells
It's Christmas time in the city
Ring-a-ling, hear them sing
Soon it will be Christmas day

Strings of street lights
Even stop lights
Blink a bright red and green
As the shoppers rush
home with their treasures

Hear the snow crunch, See the kids bunch
This is Santa's big scene
And above all this bustle
You'll hear

Silver bells, silver bells
It's Christmas time in the city
Ring-a-ling, hear them sing
Soon it will be Christmas day

From the President

Pres. Roy Quejada

A Christmas Reflection: Building Our Club as Community and Family

As Christmas approaches, I've been thinking about our club and my own journey with Rotary.

I officially joined in January 2021, and since then, I've seen our club change in many ways. New members joined, some longtime members stepped away, and everyone found their own way of participating.

Some members regularly attend meetings, service projects, and fellowship activities. Others join less often. I've observed that even in the biggest and most successful clubs, full attendance is rare. Life gets busy, and we all juggle Rotary with work, family, and other responsibilities.

This season made me reflect more deeply. I've asked myself, and our board, how we can encourage better engagement. At the same time, I've come to accept that the board can only do so much. A strong club is built when each member makes a personal decision to show up to give not only money, but also time and talent.

Christmas reminds us of hope that came in a simple and humble way. The birth of Jesus brought light to the world. In the same way, Rotary stands for hope and service in our community.

"Mas nararamdaman ang pagasa when we are present."

It doesn't take a lot of time just enough to stay connected and involved.

From the President

Pres. Roy Quejada

Continuation 1.

As I reflect, I realize that Rotary has become part of who I am. It's no longer just something I do; it's something I carry with me. I pray that I continue to embrace this identity in the years ahead, even after my presidency.

My prayers this Christmas is that we continue to build our club not just as an organization, but as a community and a family.

I wish you all a Merry and Blessed Christmas. May the warmth of the season cover your home with peace, love, and joy.

Roy E. Quejada

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

What looks as a free wheeling style at my free time is turning to be a burden as there are activities worth to play around with in my column. When boss HOF/PP Peter called me for my Notes, I failed to realize that it is one day earlier for to make this. Who said you can enjoy your pre-Christmas holidays?

I begged off from attending the Christmas Party of ours even if I did and my dear Pura enlisted ahead. Our youngest daughter based in Dallas and her hubby came earlier for Pura's birthday but cannot spend Christmas with us. Her farewell dinner is also tonight as she must be at the airport before 9 pm for flight back home. Despite my previous assurance to PPA Zeny Albano, we had asked to be delisted. However, I will find time to drop by.

I wonder if by dropping by I still need to be in jeans. I might settle for Christmas tops na lang as my jeans are all very loose since I lost weight in three decades.

To the youngening ones who thought of this attire, did you consider the age of majority of our members? PE Jun said he will go to the ukay ukay. Authentic na mura pa. But even sneakers? Wag naman.

For the very first time in major affairs, I did not call PP Totoy and spouse Fe that I will pass for them for this affair due to my other commitment. Sayang das they stay in the same village as our party venue and easy for them to attend even if Totoy is wheelchair bound. He is 9 months short of his 100th year.

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

Continuation 1.

PP Ner who is Batangas based and who comes every other Thursday must be around this time as he was out last week.

Aside from having very good speakers, and regularly meeting and having our our weekly Tinig, we are way ahead of other clubs and not only in our zone, for the consistency of our meeting despite not so attractive attendance percentage. Maraming RINO in our club.

Our speaker last week, Coach Anda del Rosario was truly effective in her choice of career that even Pres Roy is a believer and good client. Her role in coaching leadership, unlocking people potential and performance is truly remarkable. She is even ready for a good extra undertaking in planning for events like debuts, weddings and even funerals and pre and post burial activities. She can well plan for these things as extra market. Even our very own Jake Oh was ohwing with approval. BBB matched her PPP. Brains, Beauty and Bearings with People, Potential and Performance. Bravo!

United Nations and Rotary celebrate 80th anniversary of UN charter

Leaders affirm their organizations' historic, enduring relationship

Members of Rotary International joined representatives of the United Nations on 11 December to observe a key milestone in the quest for global solidarity: The 80th anniversary of the signing of the UN charter. Leaders from both organizations reflected on and reaffirmed the principles the UN stands for.

“In the 1940s, when the world was torn apart by war, visionary people began to ask the most urgent questions of all: ‘How could trust be rebuilt across borders where violence had reigned? And how would humanity guard itself against repeating its own worst mistakes?’” said Rotary International President Francesco Arezzo. “In that pivotal moment, Rotary was one of the few organizations in the world that stepped forward with both hope and ideas.”

Rotary members served as official observers at the UN Charter Conference in 1945. They helped create agendas, proposed wording for resolutions, and mediated disputes between delegates.

The event, which took place in the building where the charter was signed in San Francisco, California, USA, was a moment to acknowledge a long-standing relationship and inspire future efforts. Committing to collective action has never been more crucial, said Melissa Fleming, UN/United Nations under-secretary-general for global communications. With the 2030 deadline for the UN's Sustainable Development Goals fast approaching, she said, there's still a long way to go.

"Raging conflicts, deepening inequality, runaway technologies, and a burning planet: None of these problems will fix themselves. And no one nation can fix them alone," she said.

Cyril Noirtin, dean of the Rotary Representative Network, said the values that the UN and Rotary share are threatened as never before.

"Today, multilateralism faces serious challenges," he said. "Political tensions, declining funding, and weak commitments threaten global cooperation when it is needed most."

But there are signs of progress and hope, Fleming said. She noted that the number of girls in school is at a record high, and graduation rates for all students are rising. HIV infection rates are down, as are maternal and child mortality rates. And 1.5 billion people have been lifted out of extreme poverty since 1990.

"Momentum is building," she said. "When we boost education, we boost gender equality. When we stabilize the climate, we strengthen food security. When we fight famine, we pave the way for peace. This progress doesn't happen by accident. It is the result of hard work, by real people, day in, day out."

That's the kind of work Rotary members can do, Noirtin said. "A Rotary club working on literacy can align with UNESCO's global education standards,” he said. “A health initiative can benefit from the World Health Organization’s technical guidance. A peace-building project can draw on expert knowledge from UN agencies.”

Rotary’s relationship with the UN has been strong since Rotary members were invited to participate in the charter conference.

“The invitation to Rotary International was not merely a gesture of goodwill and respect toward a great organization,” said Edward Stettinius Jr., then U.S. secretary of state, at the time. “It was a simple recognition of the practical part Rotary’s members have played and will continue to play in the development of understanding among nations.”

Stettinius’ prediction was fulfilled, and Rotary’s unique relationship with the UN has endured. Through the decades, Rotary members have worked alongside UN agencies in areas ranging from global health to peacebuilding to environmental protection. Rotary’s quest to eradicate polio has received crucial support from the UN, with the World Health Organization and UNICEF serving with Rotary as partners in the Global Polio Eradication Initiative. In 2023, a new collaboration with the United Nations Environment Programme empowered Rotary and Rotaract members to clean up, protect, and monitor their local waterways.

The UN’s wide-ranging impact may be taken for granted today, but there was a time when it was difficult to imagine. Arezzo asked attendees to put themselves in the place of those who were present at the charter signing. Those men audaciously insisted that lasting peace was possible amid the ashes of a worldwide war.

“Imagine those early Rotarians in San Francisco trying to articulate what a peaceful world might look like. Their words were fragile but powerful, as if they were lighting a lantern in a world still full of smoke,” Arezzo said. “And yet they saw beyond the ruins. They believed that peace could be built, not only by treaties, but by the quiet, steady courage of people who chose connection over division.”

THE TWELVE DAYS OF CHRISTMAS

From 1558 until 1829, Roman Catholics in England were not permitted to practice their faith openly. Someone during that era wrote the carol. Twelve Days of Christmas as a catechism song for young Catholics. It has two levels of meaning: The surface meaning plus a hidden meaning known only to members of their church. Each element in the carol has a code word for a religious reality which the children could remember.

- The partridge in a pear tree was Jesus Christ.
- Two turtle doves were the Old and New Testaments.
- Three French hens stood for faith, hope and love.
- The four calling birds were the four gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke & John.
- The five golden rings recalled the Torah or Law, the first five books of the Old Testament.
- The six geese a-laying stood for the six days of creation.
- Sevens swans a-swimming represented the sevenfold gifts of the Holy Spirit – Prophesy, Serving, Teaching, Exhortation, Contribution, Leadership, and Mercy.
- The eight maids a-milking were the eight beatitudes.

Tinig Tidbits

By: HOF/PP Peter Javier

Continuation 1

- Nine ladies dancing were the nine fruits of the Holy Spirit – Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Faithfulness, Gentleness and Self Control.
- The ten lords a-leaping were the ten commandments.
- The eleven pipers piping stood for the eleven faithful disciples.
- The twelve drummers drumming symbolized the twelve points of belief in the Apostles' Creed.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO EVERYONE! .
