of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?

Song of the Day

MY ROTARY DAY

(Adapted from "Beautiful Sunday")

Thursday morning, I'm up and about
I think I'll take a walk in the park
Hey, hey, hey, it's a wonderful day

I've got someone waiting for me
When I see him I know that he'll say
Hey, hey, hey, it's our Rotary day

Hi, hi, hi, wonderful Thursday
This is my, my, my, Rotary day
When you say, say, say, say that you'll meet me
Oh, hey, hey, hey it's our Rotary day

Birds are singing, you by my side
Let's take a car and go for a ride
Hey, hey, hey, it's our Rotary day
We'll drive on and follow the sun
Makin' Thursday go on and on
Hey, hey, hey, it's our Rotary day

Hi, hi, hi, wonderful Thursday
This is my, my, my, Rotary day
When you say, say, say, say that you'll meet me
Oh, hey, hey, hey it's our Rotary day

Hi, hi, hi, wonderful Thursday
This is my, my, my, Rotary day
When you say, say, say, say that you'll meet me
Oh, hey, hey, hey it's our Rotary day

Palette of Possibilities: When Fellowship Becomes a Force for Good

Last November 18, the Pasig Museum came alive with color, laughter, and wonderful connections as the Good Presidents of the Rotary Clubs of Pasig opened the first (ha ha- uulit pa kami) art exhibit, Palette of Possibilities. What many don't know is that this whole project started as a simple fellowship activity last September just presidents spending time together, sharing stories, drinking wine, and getting to know each other better. Meron boomer, genX, and kaming mga millennials sa group a time well spent to build rapport.

That evening of bonding reminded us of something important: when Rotarians connect, ideas come out, and small moments can lead to something big. And from that spirit of togetherness, a fundraising initiative was born.

The opening event was graced by Governor Gina Sanchez, PDG Pope Solis, PDG Bobby Tanyag, and guests from various clubs. Representing RC Pasig were HOF John Javier, PP Henry Uy, and Dir. Amado Bengua all showing what it means to support each other as one Rotary family.

The paintings displayed were more than just art pieces; they were products of shared fellowship, laughter, and friendship among the presidents. To extend the impact, we created beautiful boxed greeting cards featuring the 13 artworks. (Each box is ₱700, and every purchase directly supports the service projects of our clubs)

But beyond the fundraising, the heart of this initiative is a simple message to all our members:

Fellowship matters.

It strengthens our bonds, keeps our purpose alive, and reminds us that Rotary is not just about projects it's about people.

So we hope more members join us in future gatherings, experience the joy of connecting, and support initiatives like this. Together, let's continue proving that when fellowship amplifies our common purpose, the possibilities are truly endless.

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

We had a very nice after the main speaker's last week, longer and more intense than the main presentation. PP Dick Penson must be truly pleased of the movement he and our very nationalistic Rtn Alex has been pounding on. Dick and Alex are the main proponents of Reform Anti Dynasty People's Initiative. In the lively discussions, the evils of our present system were criticized and rightly so - for the abuses the setup caused.

Even Rtn James was animated making his presence felt after we missed him a week after he was inducted.

It was the birthday of former Rtn Richie the other day and with many well wishers napansin niya. After his Canada trip, he forgot to return to our meetings. Some were asking who this Rotarian was our Rotary t-shirt?

Jimmy, our seldom seen Rotarian is the brother of Dir Joseph. Jimmy is involved in dredging operations and most of the time is out of town. But getting rid of floods perhaps is not during our lifetime.

PP Henry has many talents and contacts. Long before Typhoon Verbena came he was posting on Viber this coming typhoon and hoping it will not be like Typhoons Tino and Uwan. At this time, a day before our meeting, Verbena has yet to do due recognition in our area.

Too bad, I and PP Peter missed the WPS documentary. Fishy as it was, even China is enjoying the rich source. Indeed God gave us Filipinos a virtual paradise. Very rich country with so many poor people.

It is nice to hear the fining of HOF/PP Peter as he is fully backed by his records. So he fined based on achievements or lack of it but in the field of Rotary functions. It shows the difference between our columns too. While he has to read and research to give meaningful information, I have to recall minor happenings in our meetings and make sense of nonsense some of them.

We have a good list of Rotarians of ours who are treated like VIPS, Chony, Vico, Dodot and sometimes Roman. Jimmy is also one of them but his work is the main reason. He has to do some make ups. But the others, they just refrain from sharing their valued fellowship.

Last Memorial Day was not a good one. Pres Roy and his Board will not want to miss out on a truly big one, our 55th Charter Anniversary this January. Charter members who are still alive should be gathered and all PPs even if not with our club must be invited as this is a milestone. Many governor candidates of our club has yet to make us better known not only in the district but in the entire Philippines. We have had only two DGs in our more than 50 years. Good enough that we a PRID but we should have more!

Arizona Daily Star: Pedaling toward a polio-free world

I first heard about El Tour de Tucson in the unlikeliest of places: aboard a water taxi in Bangkok in 2012. Several Tucsonans struck up a conversation when they learned I was an avid cyclist. They told me how Rotary clubs in Southern Arizona had begun using Tucson's annual bike ride to raise money for global polio eradication.

Their enthusiasm touched me. By the time our short ferry ride was over, I had agreed to join them. That November, I traveled from Chicago to Tucson for my first El Tour, a rigorous 102-mile ride that starts in downtown Tucson. I've returned 12 more times since. Through our participation, my Rotary teammates and I have raised more than $72 million to help provide polio vaccines for children.

It's fitting that Tucson hosts this event because Arizona once played a pivotal role in America's fight against the virus. In 1946, the polio epidemic hit the state, with 88 recorded cases, a number that would multiply dramatically in the years ahead. As panic spread, officials closed swimming pools, theaters, and public spaces in an effort to contain the disease.

In 1962, when Dr. Albert Sabin's oral polio vaccine became available, Arizona launched one of the country's first mass immunization campaigns, in Maricopa and Pima counties. On Sundays, children lined up at churches and schools to receive the polio vaccine on sugar cubes. These “Sabin Oral Sundays” became so successful that health advocates across the nation copied the Arizona model in their own communities. By 1964, more than 100 million Americans had been vaccinated, and no further polio outbreaks were recorded in the U.S.

While the virus was under control in the United States by the late 1970s, it continued to paralyze more than 350,000 people annually in 125 countries. In response, Rotary and its government and nonprofit partners founded the Global Polio Eradication Initiative in 1988. Since then, global vaccination drives have reduced cases by more than 99.9%. Only Pakistan and Afghanistan still report infections caused by the wild poliovirus. When polio is finally gone, it will become, after smallpox, only the second human disease ever eradicated. To achieve that goal, Rotary members worldwide have contributed $2.9 billion and countless volunteer hours through community events such as El Tour de Tucson.

My journey to cycling and El Tour began out of necessity. I had been a lifelong athlete, playing lacrosse, soccer, and squash in high school and college, and later taking up running. But arthritis, especially in my right hip, eventually forced me to stop. At my wife’s urging, I turned to biking and soon grew to love the sport.

Over the years, I’ve tackled many rides, yet none match El Tour’s combination of endurance, camaraderie, and cause. My personal goal for each El Tour was to break the five-hour mark; many Rotary supporters pledged to double or triple their donations if I reached that elite level. I first achieved it in 2015, finishing in four hours and 55 minutes. Crawling off my bike, I just sat for an hour, exhausted but elated.

Walking the Avenues

Continuation 2.

This year, recovering from another hip surgery in April, I drew inspiration from Minda Dentler, a polio survivor and the first female wheelchair athlete to finish the Ironman World Championship triathlon. Her determination will push me toward a six-hour finish.

Though we are close to ending polio, the threat isn't over. Government funding gaps, shifting priorities, and vaccine hesitancy in many countries are jeopardizing progress. Recent detections of poliovirus in New York and Gaza show that polio anywhere is a threat everywhere in our interconnected world. If vaccination rates decline, the virus could return to polio-free places. That's why El Tour and similar events remain vital. They help raise money and awareness that vaccines are safe, effective, and lifesaving.

On Nov. 22, as thousands of riders roll out at dawn beneath Tucson's pink skies, I will be reminded what this moment represents: communities coming together to protect future generations. With every mile, we move closer to a world where no child will ever again suffer from polio.

An avid cyclist, John Hewko, CEO and general secretary of Rotary International, is traveling to Tucson from his home in Evanston, Illinois, to participate for the 13th time in El Tour de Tucson and raise money for Rotary's global polio eradication efforts.

Our Guest Speaker

Hon. Augusto C. Lagman

Former COMELEC Commissioner and BS Mechanical Engineering Class 61 alumnus Augusto “Gus” Lagman established the Augusto and Teresita Lagman Scholarships in Engineering. Starting this AY 2024-25, the scholarships will support four incoming freshmen coming from low-income families for four years, until their graduation. The donation handover was held on July 1, 2024 at the Gimenez Gallery in UP Diliman during the Opening of the Ricalde Exhibit.

Gus has been actively contributing to the faculty and infrastructure development programs for the UP College of Engineering. In 2021, he donated significant funding to set up the Computing Facility, and also established the Lagman Family Professorial Chair.

A Pandemic Called Corruption

Last November 3, my fellow priests of the Diocese of Pasig and I attended a recollection facilitated by H.E. Luis Antonio Card. Tagle at Collegio Filippino in Rome, Italy. After listening to his input as we began our two-week Clergy Marian Pilgrimage, I approached him to thank him and to continue to pray for our country. But he somehow read between the lines or guessed what I was thinking, he told me to pray too for Italy for corruption here is as worse as in our homeland. Thus, I learned with my naive mind that corruption is not a national cancer. Rather, it's a pandemic.

If God indeed created us in His own image (Gen. 1:27), then we should be as just and righteous as Him. That's why God taught us through the Prophet Moses, "You must not distort justice; you must not show partiality; and you must not accept bribes, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and subverts the cause of those who are in the right (Deut. 16:19)." Yet, corruption is rampant in our country and in most countries, even it has almost become a new normal for us. If we are indeed men and women of integrity (if not of God), then corruption should be unacceptable for us. Why? As Fr. Albert Alejo, SJ, once said, "Corruption not only steals but also kills".

Thus, we must pray that corruption may be reduced if not eliminated, and restore integrity as one of our paramount Filipino virtues someday.
