THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- First : The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for Service;
- Second : High Ethical standards in business and professions; the Recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- Third : The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;
- Fourth : The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Song of the Day

IT'S THE 4-WAY TEST

(Tune: It's The Real Thing)

We'd like to help Pilipinos live
In perfect harmony
We'd like to help Pilipinos grow
As honest as can be.

The 4-Way Test is what we offer
To guide their way through life
It teaches them to tell the truth
And not to tell a lie.

Refrain:

It's the 4-Way Test
It's Rotary's way
We're all proud to say
It's the 4-Way Test

We'd like to help Philippines grow
In the most beneficial ways
And bring Pilipinos all together
In harmony and peace.

The 4-Way Test is what we offer
To bind them all as one.
They'll cherish truth as their ideal
Put lying out of mind

(Repeat Refrain)

Pagpupugay sa Kabayanihan ng Kapulisan

Sa isang araw ng pagkilala at pasasalamat, binigyang-pugay ang mga natatanging miyembro ng ating hanay ng kapulisan mga lingkod-bayan na patuloy na nagsisilbi nang may tapang, disiplina, at malasakit.

Higit pa sa pagbibigay ng plake o gantimpala, ang Pagpupugay Awards ay isang pagkilala sa kabayanihan ng ating mga pulis mga taong araw-araw na humaharap sa panganib upang tiyakin ang kaligtasan at kapayapaan ng ating komunidad. Sa likod ng bawat parangal ay mga kwento ng sakripisyo at dedikasyon mga katangiang hindi laging nakikita, ngunit lubos na nararamdaman sa bawat serbisyong kanilang ibinibigay.

Ngunit sa gabing ito, hindi lamang ang mga awardees ang ating kinilala. Pinarangalan din natin ang kanilang mga pamilya ang lakas sa likod ng bawat sakripisyo. Sa mga kwentong ibinahagi, malinaw ang lalim ng pagmamahal ng bawat pulis sa kanilang pamilya sila ang dahilan at inspirasyon sa patuloy na paglilingkod.

Sa gitna ng patuloy na hamon ng ating panahon, ang kanilang halimbawa ay nagsisilbing paalala na ang tunay na serbisyo ay may puso, may tapang, at may integridad.

Ang ng pagpupugay awards na ito ay hindi lamang pagtatapos ng pagkilala, kundi isang panawagan na ipagpatuloy ang serbisyong may malasakit sa bayan.

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

All of us are experiencing the high fuel prices, even if twice lowered are still high except for PRID/HOF Raffy and HOF/PP Conrad, both praising their electric vehicles. But added to the fuel prices is the heat that seems unforgiving as starting tomorrow, the start of feeling of El Nino will be felt.

Today, a great club could not even support the great Rtn Chony's gift of a truly cut project, the Pagpupugay sa Kabayanihan ng Pulis Pasig. The P300,000 support contribution for those screened but did not make the grade, only a less than a third gave or pledged to give. If my memory is still good, during the last meeting, PRID Raffy said he will add P100,000 to his P5,000 contribution which about 14 others also committed to give.

Up to press time, I have been texting for direction on where our Pagpupugay will be as only the place was stated. If I will not get direction, I will just attend the meeting at VVCC after. Our first dinner meeting for the RY.

PRID Raffy had two big time parties in big time venues too. On his actual birthday last Wednesday, it was for his Ateneo batch mates with their spouses at BGC and another big one for Rotarians and other business groups at the North Forbes Pavilion. Though I committed to attend, I begged off during our Thursday noon meeting as my spouse Pura was waiting for a room at TMC. I did not realize that I could have gone as the room was made available at 11 pm. If someone did not die in that room less than 2 hours ago, no room pa din.

Continuation 1.

PPs Conrad and Peter and spouse Nana were following up on Pura's condition that got bad due to swelling starting from the legs that went up to as high as the stomach. After being drained 600 mL from the right lungs, the water in the left lungs was by medication. Despite being on insulin injection for nearly 25 years, they cannot control the high blood sugar. The doctors did not realize it's due to a very sweet husband. Hindi talaga bababayan. And speaking of bababa, a foreigner waiting for the elevator to get out of the building. When the lady next to her asked the one inside the elevator if bababa ba? And when the answer was yes, bababa na, she told the foreigner, let us go.

We have been highly praised for the Parangal sa Pulis but still no other meaningful project has been fashioned out. Parangal sa Alpabasa? Parangal sa Guro? Parangal kung sino sino na lang, pwede na rin.

IPP Dody had a different fining but meaningful one last week. It is nice to vary fining that even those fined gave a good smile while paying.

It is a pity that our attendance was not good last week. Below na the usual below pa. What made it bad was it was the Governor's visit. The Pangkat heads did not inform their members about the Governor's visit. Sana naman we have a good number for the first dinner cum fellowship after the Parangal.

Passport clubs offer ticket to flexibility

Marco Cecala and Rebecca Wilks had been Rotary members for years when the couple moved to Yarnell, Arizona, in 2019. Suddenly, they were more than 25 miles from the nearest Rotary club. “We were wondering what to do,” Cecala recalls.

Eventually, they stumbled upon the Rotary Club of Valley of the Sun Passport, a reinvention of a traditional club based in a Phoenix suburb. The club meets online only once per month, and its board meets monthly as well. Intrigued, Cecala and Wilks tried it out and found their new Rotary home.

Rotary’s Guide to Passport Clubs explains that this type of club gives members a more flexible experience by encouraging them to regularly visit other clubs, which is where the “passport” part of the name comes from. Passport clubs can relax the attendance policy or offer a variety of meeting formats.

As Cecala and Wilks set out recruiting members, they discovered the passport format was ideal for people who were on the verge of leaving Rotary. “We talked to friends of ours who were former district governors and current presidents and said, ‘Look, if you’ve got somebody who’s teetering, send them to us,’” Cecala recalls. “We’ll talk to them and show them this is an alternative.”

Members of passport clubs often engage with people from other clubs whose interests match their own. “Many of us go to places and see projects we have supported for years,” Cecala says. “As a passport club, we are ambassadors for passion projects and creative ways to fund them.”

The Rotary Club of Ōtautahi Passport in New Zealand began intentionally as a passport club at a time when COVID-19 restrictions were in place, and the group held its first meetings virtually. Like the Valley of the Sun passport club, the group grew as members found other individuals who had either recently left Rotary or were unhappy in their clubs.

“Our model is very flexible. If something isn’t working, with club members’ input, we change it,” says Deb Gimblett, charter president of the New Zealand club. “Our meetings are less time-consuming. Members are encouraged to do what they can.”

The club meets every other week at varied locations throughout the Canterbury region. There are no meals to pay for, although when the club meets at a local McDonalds, members can grab a burger or fries if they want. “We don’t expect people to come to every meeting,” notes Club President Martin MacLean. “Sometimes we’ll have a meeting as part of an event, like a project. We might take half an hour at the beginning for a formal meeting and then go into our service.”

The Frederiksberg-Falconér Passport club near Copenhagen, Denmark, began as a traditional club but transitioned to the passport form in 2023, as the club and others in its district were experiencing a decline in membership. Club member Maiken Hallingskov, the district’s membership chair, says a workshop with members of clubs in the Copenhagen area determined most wanted to stay in Rotary but weekly meetings had become too much.

The passport club has grown from 14 to 22 members, largely from active promotion on the LinkedIn networking site. Hallingskov says the limited time commitment is the major selling point.

“People want to keep it easy, and they want to do a special thing for the local community or someone else,” says Hallingskov. “We are all very active, have our own companies, and don’t have much time. Two hours a month is enough for us to get it done.”
