Song of the Day

HERE COMES THE SUN

Here comes the sun, doo-doo-doo
Here comes the sun
And I say, "It's all right"

Little darlin'
It's been a long, cold, lonely winter
Little darlin'
It feels like years since it's been here
Here comes the sun, doo-doo-do

Here comes the sun
And I say, "It's all right"
Little darlin'
The smile's returning to the faces

Little darlin'
It seems like years since it's been here
Here comes the sun
Here comes the sun
And I say, "It's all right"

Sun, sun, sun, here it comes
Sun, sun, sun, here it comes
Sun, sun, sun, here it comes
Sun, sun, sun, here it comes
Sun, sun, sun, here it comes

From the President

Pres. Jun Zafra

“THE FILIPINOS ARE WORTH SERVING FOR”

As we commemorate Ninoy Aquino Day this August 21, we remember his courage and conviction. “The Filipinos are worth dying for”.

As Rotarians, our answer is lived daily through our motto: Service Above Self.

For us, it means: “The Filipinos are worth serving for”.

This month, let us honor Ninoy not just in words, but in action. Let us serve more in our communities, speak up more for integrity and good governance and invite more to join us in this work.

One project, one member, one life at a time – that is how we keep his legacy alive.

Because the Filipinos are not just worth dying for. The Filipinos are worth living for and worth serving for.

Service Above Self.

Jun C. Zafra
High Impact President
RY 2026 - 2027

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

Last week's crowd of ours was far less than the previous week. Today, with rains all over I wonder how good we are in taming the weather.

PRID Raffy brought to our meeting a well known cellist in Diego Caniere but we were a less appreciative audience that we did not even request for another number. He brought the same cellist to the Rotary Club of Manila and they showed their appreciation more.

Our former long time member, Roger Laraya was one of the distinguished alumni of UP last homecoming for contribution to geoscience, economic geology, geostatistics and mineral resources development. Whatever that means, medyo heavy that as usual he has to carry it in his wheelchair (the reason why he dropped out of our club - his weak knees).

You don't call a fellow Rotarian your Idol if you don't recognize he has some degree of higher status. But, looking at my column last week, my true Idol missed my point about contents of our Tinig that we should as the criteria of the District guidelines. My idol misinterpreted my asking to be against his incoming column which, like the one of HOF / PP Peter is very informative for old readers. To prove my idolizing him further, when I was giving up my column, he was the first name I told my boss Peter who can take over my column. That is why pala my Idol thought I was thinking lowly of him. Why my column if he can make one better. Now I should feel bad? No naman, basta makaalis lang ako dito.

Continuation 1.

Now PP Henry is asking for contacts to our lady charmer Alex Eala to hire a masseur not realizing that even before she was winning games, she had a regular one and that her brother Milo is one of her trainers. She is rumored to be a Batangueña as when her name read backwards - ALA-E, Batangueñang batangueña talaga. But from Pangasinan the family established their base in Los Banos where most of the Ealas made their names.

Two Thursdays from now will be the 60th wedding anniversary of our pillar - Raffy. Two weeks before that would have been our 60th too except my Pura could not wait anymore. I remember the grand birthday of Raffy which he celebrated for us on the very next day of his actual birthday. That was the first day at the ICU of my Pura who eventually took her last efforts in a 4-week stretch. That is life.

Our very regular visitor, former Rotarian Jerry Quibilan suggested a special recognition for PP Ner who is Batangas based and who comes to our meeting every other week. In a grand style pa raw, with a cane. Why recognize a 50% attendee when there are several good attendees? Both of us are in our 90s now but I always kid him - na onsehan mo ako as he is 11 days older than me. Ang mundo onsehan lang talaga. Not with me and Ner though,

After a good talk of Madame Heidi, spouse Rtn Roy will make his defense? Heidi will make it to the Senate if she is with a party. Independent? Tough, very tough!

Rotary projects around the globe – August 2026

Learn how Rotary clubs are taking action in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, and Thailand.

United States

After a popular home improvement show turned its cameras on Sebring, the small city in south central Florida saw an influx of tourists seeking to experience the bucolic charms depicted in HGTV's Home Town Takeover program. There was just one problem: The area lacked a loo for the lookie-loos. In April, the Rotary Club of Sebring opened a public restroom off the town circle after a monthslong construction project. "Having safe, functional restrooms with climate control, changing stations, and disabled accessibility seemed like a no-brainer," says club member Debra Weiser. Club members offered pro bono professional services for engineering, construction, air conditioning, and other electrical work; another painted the structure at a discount, and Rotarian city officials sped permit approvals and fee waivers.

Canada

The annual used book sale of the Rotary Club of Sarnia-Bluewaterland in Ontario has been a fixture for more than 25 years. "We all realized we were in this because we loved books, we wanted to encourage others in the community to access great books at a reasonable price, and, yes, it was a wonderful way to generate funds to support local nonprofits," says coordinator Dale Wilcox. In January, the sale raised more than US$42,000, with leftover books being distributed to several organizations and groups, including a Canadian Armed Forces unit stationed in Latvia. “Troops are already digging into the massive collection and finding a good book to keep at their bedside or take into the field,” Lt. Col. Colleen Grebstad reported in a letter to the club.

United Kingdom

When members of the Rotary Club of Borderlands (Passport Group) heard about the PolioPlus Society Kennel Klub, they excitedly enrolled their furry friends. An extension of the district-led PolioPlus Society, the Kennel Klub allows pets (well, their owners) to pledge at least $100 per year to PolioPlus and, in return, receive a pet-purrfect red End Polio Now bandana. “The Kennel Klub welcomes animals of any kind,” says Borderlands club member Beth Thomson, “and whilst ours are mainly dogs, there is a pet sheep (a Swiss Valais Blacknose) in there too!” The club, chartered in 2023, has 100 percent PolioPlus Society membership, donating about $5,500 per year to the cause. While the club hasn’t brought the pets to its breakfast meetings — “I suspect it would be a recipe for chaos,” Thomson says — it did persuade Past RI President Gordon McNally (whose wife, Heather, was the club’s 2025-26 president) to sit for a photo shoot with Kennel Klub idols Mabel, Angus, Applepip, Tess, Todd, Cora, and Fleet.

Thailand

Golf ball drops using cranes or drones might be ubiquitous, but the Rotary Club of Chiang Mai International, in a lush, hilly northern province of Thailand, takes it to new heights. In the sixth edition of its charity ball drop on 31 January, the club hoisted a tethered hot-air balloon to launch 300 labeled golf balls onto a green. Balls landing nearest, or in, the hole garnered gift vouchers. This year's event netted about $4,000 for the club's projects for children. While the drop is only a minor fundraiser for the club in terms of receipts, "the event attracts a lot of attention in our community and worldwide and is a good contact point for new donors and new members," says club member John Schorr.

LEGAL CORNER

By PP Celso Ylagan II

In Go v. Chan-Go, G.R. No. 243647, November 18, 2025, the Supreme Court has ruled that a spouse's acts creating a hostile and intimidating environment for the other spouse, their children, and common children may constitute "grossly abusive conduct" under the Family Code which serves as a ground for legal separation.

Facts:

Sometime in 2000, Garry met Lynn while the former was working in his sister's textile store. They eventually became lovers and decided to live together. In 2003, Garry and Lynn got married and had two daughters. During their marriage, they encountered financial problems with Garry experiencing different forms of grossly abusive conduct from Lynn, such as maligning Garry's reputation, doing things without Garry's knowledge, and Lynn's refusal to seek marriage counseling, among others. Garry filed a petition for legal separation.

Ruling:

The Court granted the petition for legal separation filed by a husband against his wife, after finding that her actions constituted grossly abusive conduct under Article 55(1) of the Family Code. To the Court's mind, Garry's allegations against Lynn satisfy the existence of a hostile and intimidating environment for Garry. Taken together, the Court finds that Garry was able to prove that Lynn's acts constituted "grossly abusive conduct" under the Family Code. The Court affirmed the legal separation of Garry B. Go and Lynn Y. Chan-Go with all the legal effects attendant thereto, particularly the dissolution and liquidation of their property regime. 🏛️

Wheat not Weeds

The Wisdom of Silence

I remember what my Parish Priest advised me in one of my conversations with him. He advised me that I have to be silent sometimes in meetings to give others a chance to speak. Later on, I found out another benefit of it. Sometimes I have to be silent to know better.

Silence is probably often misunderstood as weakness or no intelligence. However, the Bible says that "at such a time the prudent person keeps silent, for it is an evil time (Amos 5:13)." It means that silence is one of the characteristics of a wise or intelligent person. If someone is silent, he or she can listen well to what others are saying, is aware of what is happening in his or her surroundings, and can focus well in what he or she is doing. More than that, senses of a silent person is heightened. But most of all, a silent person is sensitive to God speaking to him or her in prayer for God speaks to us in silence.

So, let's really find a quiet place and time to be with ourselves and God. In communing with God in silence through prayer, we gain wisdom.
