THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Song of the Day

HEAL THE WORLD

There's a place in your heart
And I know that it is love
And this place could be much brighter than tomorrow

And if you really try
You'll find there's no need to cry
In this place you'll feel there's no hurt or sorrow

There are ways to get there
If you care enough for the living
Make a little space
Make a better place

Heal the world
Make it a better place
For you and for me
And the entire human race
There are people dying
If you care enough for the living
Make a better place
For you and for me

If you want to know why
There's a love that cannot lie
Love is strong
It only cares for joyful giving

If we try we shall see

Song of the Day

Continuation 1.

In this bliss we cannot feel
Fear or dread
We stop existing and start living

Then it feels that always
Love's enough for us growing
Make a better world
To make a better world

Heal the world
Make it a better place
For you and for me
And the entire human race
There are people dying
If you care enough for the living
Make a better place
For you and for me

And the dream we were conceived in
Will reveal a joyful face
And the world we once believed in
Will shine again in grace

Then why do we keep strangling life
Wound this Earth, crucify its soul?
Though it's plain to see
This world is heavenly
Be God's glow

Song of the Day

Continuation 2.

We could fly so high
Let our spirits never die
In my heart I feel you are all my brothers

Create a world with no fear
Together we'll cry happy tears
See the nations turn their swords into plowshares

We could really get there
If you cared enough for the living
Make a little space
To make a better place

Heal the world
Make it a better place
For you and for me
And the entire human race
There are people dying
If you care enough for the living
Make a better place
For you and for me

“BRING A FRIEND, GROW OUR SERVICE”

Our last meeting for August will be all about Fellowship and Membership,

August is Membership and Club Development Month, and I am asking you to bring a probable Rotarian to our meeting. Let them experience the warmth, the laughter, and the purpose that makes RC Pasig home,

So far, we have been to induct two new members this early of the Rotary Year. Fons Bautista a young entrepreneur world class swimmer and returning Rotarian Jeff Sonora. That is to more hands to serve, two more hearts for Service Above Self. Let us keep the momentum going.

Membership is not just about numbers. It is finding more people who believe, like we do that our community is worth serving for.

So come, eat, laugh, connect and bring a friend who might just be our next Rotarian.

Let us end August strong, together.

Service Above Self.

Jun C. Zafra
High Impact President
RY 2026 - 2027

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

We greet our Membership Development Month with an early dinner meeting today on a freewheeling basis that is, no target numbers. Each of the members are asked to bring a prospective member. But with an attendance level of about 40% and at best 60%|, chances are we will be lucky to have 15 prospective members.

We have plenty of RINOs now as like most Rotary Clubs, we are not pressing on our attendance requirements.

I was not involved but at a friendly table, there was a discussion about the mayoralty race for our dear city, 2028 yet. But politics being a great pastime of our country, it was nice to listen. Apparently 2 of our members are going to vie for the position to be vacated by Mayor Vico --- Former Congressman and now Vice Mayor Dodot Jaworski and outgoing Congressman Roman Romulo. Both of them are our members, RINO Dodot and seen only in major events, Cong. Roman. Both of their spouses are honed in campaigning almost on even powers. The contest seems tight. There will be one who will have a very big advantage, the one that Vico will endorse. All three main characters are members of our club with Cong. Roman having a slight advantage in attendance. If Roman can convince Dodot to run again for Congress and Roman for Mayor, easy sailing for both of them. Vico is a sure winner if he runs for the Senate.

60th is a milestone especially for achievers PRID Raffy and the equally very well known Minda. Fresh from his university degree in US, Raffy and Minda tied the knot in 1966. The big celebration will be next Thursday already and I really hope I will not miss this one. Last April when Raffy celebrated his 82nd birthday, a day after his real one, I missed out as it was the first day at ICU of my spouse Pura, who after 2 long months mostly at the ICU left me. I hope this time I will not miss out on a big event. Athletic Raffy was called Taong Bakal for he excelled in any undertaking in sports, in finances, in extra curricular activities and even the bawal, OK sya.

The cane of PP Ner is nice on him. He does not need it for his age but there are so many dogs in their vicinity in his Batangas base that the cane is helpful.

Next month, PP Totoy still active except that he is wheelchair bound will hit his 100 years. The club should honor him with a Totoy Bartolome Day. His birthday will be on a Sunday. Let's consider transferring the meeting to a late Saturday time with an anticipated mass and we can invite his entire family and even Zone 6 officers and our district governor for the grand affair.

Last meeting CM/PP Arjan kidded me that the week before I acknowledged him and CM/PP Peping as charter members but fined him for both of them. I was not even aware that I did that. But he went farther by giving a big donation to the club. Naging four na bigtime Rotarians natin with Raffy, Chony and Flor spearheading the good list. With generous souls like you people, we can be meaningful in reaching out.

Talking reading and Rotary with Dolly Parton

The entertainer and philanthropist Dolly Parton died 25 August 2026. This Q&A was originally published in the March 2010 issue of The Rotarian (now Rotary) magazine. Later that year, she spoke at the Rotary International Convention in Montreal, Canada.

Growing up in the mountains of Tennessee, USA, Dolly Parton had little time for reading. Before and after school, she and her 11 siblings had chores: fetching water from the well, cooking over the wood-burning stove, and tending the vegetable plot. Her father, a tobacco farmer, never learned to read.

Parton's impoverished childhood and her father's illiteracy inspired the country music legend to launch a children's book program in 1996. She started in her native Sevier County. Now home to about 80,000 people, the county had a population of 60 during her youth — "and 36 of them were Partons," she says.

The Dollywood Foundation's Imagination Library provides a new book every month to children from birth to age five, starting with The Little Engine That Could. To date, the program has delivered more than 23 million books to preschoolers in Canada, the United Kingdom, and the United States. A year ago, Parton's organization and Rotary International teamed up to further the effort, which costs US$28 per child annually. More than 140 Rotary clubs participate.

Parton will give a keynote address on 23 June at the 2010 RI Convention in Montréal, Que., Canada.

Walking the Avenues

PP Ramy Garcia IV

An actress, songwriter, and singer, Parton has won seven Grammy awards and was named to the Country Music Hall of Fame in 1999. Her Broadway musical, 9 to 5, based on the movie, will be touring later this year. This month also marks the 25th anniversary of her Dollywood theme park, in Pigeon Forge, Tenn.

Most philanthropies help only the poor. The Imagination Library took income out of the equation, offering books to all children, regardless of family finances. Why is that? I never wanted a child or family to feel they were getting books because someone decided they must be poor or underprivileged. I want kids to feel that the reason they are getting a book is because they are under five and their community loves them. And I do have a practical side: If we had to take on the burden of deciding who qualified and who didn't, we would spend more time and money on qualifying people than we would on books. How has Rotary supported your work? Rotary has been a wonderful partner. It has helped us in all kinds of ways — getting the word out, funding the effort, and finding others to help fund it, and also registering lots of kids. It won't be long till we are mailing to 600,000 kids a month.

What is your impression of the Rotarians you have met? I never really pay much attention to what people are; I focus on who they are. Everyone I have met has been warm, loving, caring — and pretty darn funny!

Do you own a Kindle? No. I love everything about a book —

Walking the Avenues

the way it feels and the way it smells. I think there will always be books, and I think the world is plenty big enough to have both books and Kindles.

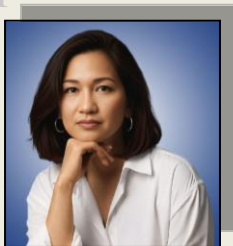

What do you envision for the future of the Imagination Library? My hope is simple: that no child will ever have to grow up without books. Our partnership with Rotary is just beginning, so I am sure as we grow closer, our dreams will grow.

What books do you have on your nightstand? I read all the time, but the one book that is always on or near my nightstand is the Bible.

Does anyone read to you? For me, reading is a solitary adventure. I get up real early every morning. I call it my ‘God time’ — it’s so quiet, and I can read, pray, write, create. It is a very special time for me.

How have your philanthropic efforts inspired your music? Everything I do somehow makes it to my music. However, I know that as I mature (I don’t get older — I just keep on growing and maturing), I want to do more with kids, entertain them, have fun with them, and maybe even inspire a few along the way. I am just a big kid myself, so I have been enjoying writing music for kids. One day down the road, I will release my first children’s collection, so stay tuned!

LEGAL CORNER

By PP Celso Ylagan II

In Josef v. Ursua, G.R. No. 267469, February 05, 2025, the Supreme Court has ruled that same-sex couples living together may be recognized as co-owners of property under Article 148 of the Family Code, provided there is proof of actual contribution.

Facts:

In 2006, Jennifer Josef and Evalyn Ursua were a same-sex couple who lived together and bought a house and lot in Quezon City. They agreed to register the property in Ursua's name to facilitate banking transactions. Ursua signed an "Acknowledgment of 3rd Party Interest in Real Property" explicitly recognizing that Josef had financed 50% of the acquisition and renovation costs.

Upon separation, they decided to sell the property and divide the proceeds equally. However, Ursua later refused to sell the property and denied that her former partner Josef was a co-owner. To protect her interest, Josef annotated an adverse claim on the title and demanded partition of the property. When this failed, Josef filed a case before the Regional Trial Court (RTC), relying on the Acknowledgment as proof of co-ownership.

Ruling:

Article 148 of the Family Code applies to couples who are not permitted to marry. Only properties obtained through actual contribution are considered common property. Here, the Supreme Court found that the signed Acknowledgement, where one partner admitted that the other paid about half of the property costs, was a binding admission and sufficient proof of actual contribution. This established co-ownership; thus, Josef has the right to demand the partition or sale and splitting of the property. ⚖️

8 Rare Diseases That You Won't Believe Actually Exist

1. Auto-Brewery Syndrome

Individuals who suffer from Auto-Brewery syndrome get drunk from just eating carbs especially gluten. This is because of yeast living in these patients' gut that converts the carbohydrates we consume into ethanol (alcohol), which can lead to intoxication.

2. Foreign Accent Syndrome

This rare speech impediment usually appears after some form of damage to the brain. A person who has sustained damage to one of the language areas of the brain may have difficulties producing certain speech sounds which listeners may perceive as a foreign accent.

3. Proteus Syndrome

Tissues and body parts grow disproportionately. A rare genetic disease that makes the different tissues of our body (bones, skin, organs & bloody vessels) grow out of proportion. Syndrome sufferers have been often labelled freaks and outcasts.

4. Cotard's Syndrome

This rare psychiatric condition also called "the walking corpse syndrome", makes patients believe that their body is decomposing. These patients are severely delusional, denying the presence of certain body parts and often refusing to eat because they believe they're already dead and won't be able to digest food.

Tinig Tidbits

By: HOF/PP Peter Javier

Continuation 1

5. Urbach-Wiethe Disease

Sufferers may be immune to fear. This rare genetic condition is typically characterized by the hardening of the skin and other tissues including the brain.

6. Marie Antoinette Syndrome

Makes one's hair suddenly turn white. The name comes from the a legend about the French queen Marie Antoinette whose hair turned white the night before her execution.

7. Water Allergies

Sufferers get skin rashes after contact with water. The medical name is twofold: Aquagenic urticaria and Aquagenic pruritus. Both are skin conditions that develop minutes after a person suffering from the so-called water allergy gets in contact with water. There is no cure and water of any temperature can trigger a reaction.

8. Fish Odor Syndrome

Trimethylaminuria, the scientific name of the condition, makes patients emit a smell reminiscent of rotten fish through their sweat, breath and urine. Most patients have mental issues due to stigma and low self-esteem.
