President's Cup 2026: Golf, Fellowship, and Purpose

Last February 17, we successfully held our President's Cup at Villamor Golf Course an event that blended friendly competition, fellowship, and meaningful fundraising for our scholars.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to the committee headed by Dir. Pal Bolivar, who also carefully prepared the flight schedule. PP John Javier and IPP Bernard Dy ensured that the prizes, awards, food, and fellowship venue were all properly set. Dir. Roland Vasquez made sure our trophies were ready and impressive. Dir. Mads Bengua prepared the pubmats and all necessary materials to showcase the event and recognize our generous sponsors. PE Jun Zafra and Dir. Joseph Gualberto together with Edgar, ensured that registration flowed smoothly from start to finish.

Of course, we thank our hosts, PP Rel Gomez and Rtn. Chickoy Chuaunsu who delivered a fun and engaging fellowship program that truly brought everyone together. We also sincerely thank Gen. Gene Menor for helping us secure the use of Villamor Golf Course for this important event.

This tournament was organized to raise funds for our scholarship program. Because of the generosity of our Rotarians and partners who sponsored and pledged for this cause, we successfully accumulated the amount needed for the stipends of our scholars from PLP and RHS. Maraming salamat sa inyong lahat.

From the President

Pres. Roy Quejada

Continuation 1.

On a lighter note, I personally stopped playing golf about 13 years ago because I found it a bit slow for me and chose to stick with badminton and biking. So during the ceremonial tee-off, I honestly had doubts if I would even hit the ball. I wasn't playing in the tournament, but I had the responsibility of opening the event. I missed the first two attempts but on the third swing, natamaan din! Muntik ko pa ngang tamaan ang photographer. (Hehe.)

More than the awards and raffle prizes with the major prize won by Rtn. Richie Defensor what truly stood out was our fellowship. Seeing the smiles and camaraderie reminded us that all our hard work and preparation were worth it.

Together, we serve. Together, we make a difference.

Roy E. Quejada

Respect. Support. Serve

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

We had two lunch breaks in a row. The first one was for the very successful golf tournament to celebrate our charter anniversary. The second one was for this noon as we have a very grand meeting with our zone and Mandaluyong zone clubs.

Today, we have as our guest speaker MMDA General Manager, the noted former PNP General Nicolas Torre III who was the one who took in former President Duterte to be taken where he is now. When it was mentioned BBB: May Solusyon Ba? as his topic today, I was reminded of a comment by a foreigner who was going down a building. When the elevator stopped at his floor, a guy asked one inside, baba ba? The guy answered baba na. All of them took the elevator. The foreigner was amused and said, "I have stayed long enough in this country but I do not understand how they understood each other".

Last Saturday was an unusual day for three of our Rotarians. They celebrated their birthdays on Valentine's Day. PP Rene, Konsi Simon and Usec Nicky. That unique triple treat to our club was matched by Rtn Ben who celebrates his birthday once in four years being born on the 29th.

We congratulate PP Rel for winning the golf tournament and for Rtn Jon for being the Class A champ. Golf Chair Dir Pal did a very good job. Even the ladies were very well trained that even in the program proper, they excelled. After the program, that is not part of my column. Even the emceeing of PP Rel and Rtn Chicoy blended very well.

Rotary Notes

Continuation 1.

Sitting comfortably at the massage chairs were former Rtn Cesar Lanuza and Dir Joseph. Both ordered the massage chairs but was not accommodating enough when they asked me to try. As I ordered a chair but theirs cost P50,000 each while mine was P150,000. Near top of the line daw naman. But it has the same function.

Finables in today's meeting are: Barber King Richie who won the 55-inch TV; Dir Mads who won the very expensive golf bag and IPP Dodie who won the Express Coffee Maker. We had many other major prizes including a microwave oven, gift certificates, Outback portable griller and steam purifier. May we have the golf tournament annually as this one gave us a net of P1.4 million. Not bad? Wait till the prizes goes higher as Mads will not let his winning a golf bag go to waste. He will pick up the sports and guys, you know how to play the game? Learning golf is not cheap.

With our MMDA General Manager as guest speaker, may our members in public office join us in our meeting? Mayor Vico, Vice Mayor Dodot and Usec Nicky are seldom seen at our meetings. Luckily, every now and then Cong Roman appears. Even if our Rtn Chony is a no show, he has been a source of pride for our club for the Parangal sa Kabayanihan ng Pulis Pasig, a project funded entirely by him. Mabuhay ka Chony.

Rotary International launches new peace center in India

Rotary Peace Center at Symbiosis International University will train peace and development professionals from across Asia

Leaders of Rotary International and Symbiosis International University gathered in Pune, India, to inaugurate a new Rotary Peace Center at the university. Supported through The Rotary Foundation, the center will provide experienced peacebuilders from across Asia with one-year professional development certificate fellowships to study subjects such as conflict transformation, sustainable development, and social change.

“With India’s rich diversity and complex social landscape, the peace center will offer unique opportunities for cultivating leaders who can navigate conflict with empathy and innovation,” says Bharat S. Pandya, a trustee of The Rotary Foundation and member of the Rotary Club of Borivli, Maharashtra, India. “This center will nurture a new generation of leaders in Asia who are dedicated to strengthening dialogue, understanding, and sustainable peace.”

The new center will host up to 40 Rotary Peace Fellows per year to earn a postgraduate diploma in peace and development studies. The program is designed for midcareer professionals with experience working in peace and development fields, including within governments, non-governmental and community organizations, educational institutions, media outlets, and international agencies.

Walking the Avenues

Continuation 1.

Symbiosis International University's motto, Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam, or The World Is One Family, reflects a commitment to internationalism and cultural understanding that dates to its founding. Established in 1971 as a cultural exchange center for students from other countries (particularly Africa) who were experiencing discrimination, Symbiosis today has more than 55,000 students from at least 85 nations.

"The university has been focused on nurturing global citizens through quality education and cross-cultural sensitization as well as empowering thoughtful leaders — essentials for creating a harmonious world," says Anita Patankar, director of the Symbiosis Centre for International Education and executive director of the university's campus in Dubai, United Arab Emirates. "The Rotary Peace Center, with its unique academic program, joins the Symbiosis family in extending this vision."

Symbiosis already has a history of collaborating with nearby Rotary Districts 3131 and 3141, which will jointly welcome and support peace fellows during their time in India. The university hosts annual Rotary Youth Leadership Awards, and Rotary members organize professional development opportunities for teachers. The Rotary Foundation recently awarded a global grant for a project at the university hospital, which provides free medical services to the community.

"Symbiosis has consistently sought to build meaningful alliances that enrich learning and foster inclusive, knowledge-driven, and sustainable progress," says Vice Chancellor Ramakrishnan Raman. "Our collaboration with Rotary further reinforces this commitment, enabling new opportunities for scholarship, peacebuilding, and human development."

Walking the Avenues

Continuation 2.

The peace center will be housed at the university's hilltop Lavale campus. Highlighting issues relevant to Asian countries, the curriculum will include many opportunities for the fellows to gain real-world experience through field visits outside of Pune as well as locally. Symbiosis has close relationships with more than 35 nearby villages, whose residents use its legal aid clinic and vocational training programs. The fellows will work with faculty members, other students, and village residents to learn about the villages, propose strategies for their development, and meet with local leaders for feedback.

This kind of practical learning is possible thanks to the ethic of social responsibility that Symbiosis and Rotary share, says Laura Descher, the Rotary Peace Centers program director.

“The university’s commitment to the advancement and well-being of not only their own students, but all people in their community and beyond, strongly aligns with Rotary’s mission to do good in the world,” she says. “Peace can only be achieved when dignity, integrity, and inclusion are prioritized across society.”

With the opening of the new peace center, Rotary’s eighth, The Rotary Foundation will be able to award up to 170 fully funded peace fellowships each year. More than 1,800 fellows have completed Rotary Peace Center programs around the world since 2002, going on to leadership roles in government agencies, NGOs, educational institutions, and international organizations. The first applications to attend the Symbiosis peace center are being accepted through 15 May 2026, and it will welcome its first group of fellows in early 2027.

Walking the Avenues

By training leaders in the strategies and practices of peacebuilding, Rotary Peace Centers have a wide-ranging impact on the world that will be felt for years to come, says Rotary International President Francesco Arezzo.

“In this interconnected world, peace can no longer be viewed as an abstract ideal. It must be cultivated through institutions that combine knowledge, ethical leadership, and action,” Arezzo says. “The Rotary Peace Center at Symbiosis International University reflects Rotary’s commitment to nurturing leaders who understand and act with integrity toward a cause. The center will contribute not only to regional peacebuilding in Asia, but to a stronger global framework for shared responsibility.”

Our Guest Speaker

Gen. Nicolas D. Torre III
MMDA – General Manager

Nicolas Deloso Torre III (born March 11, 1970) is a Filipino former police officer who served as the 31st chief of the Philippine National Police (PNP) from June 2025 until his removal in August that same year. He is the first Philippine National Police Academy graduate to hold the office. With a tenure of 85 days, he is also the shortest-serving chief of the PNP. Currently, he is serving as the general manager of the Metropolitan Manila Development Authority (MMDA) since December 19, 2025.

Torre previously served as the chief of police in Samar, Quezon City, and Davao Region. In the last role, he led the police attempt to serve an arrest warrant against Pastor Apollo Quiboloy, founder and leader of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ church, who was charged with human trafficking. In March 2025, as Criminal Investigation and Detection Group (CIDG) chief, Torre arrested former president of the Philippines Rodrigo Duterte based on a warrant issued by the International Criminal Court (ICC) for alleged crimes against humanity. He also imposed a five-minute rule for police response to emergency calls. He was removed on August 26, 2025, after Napolcom on August 14 directed him to revise the reassignment of 13 officials, including his eventual successor.

Our Guest Speaker

Continuation 1.

Early life and education

Nicolas Deloso Torre III was born on March 11, 1970, in Jolo, Sulu, and grew up in Koronadal, South Cotabato. His father, Rodolfo "Dolping" Molarto Torre, was a master sergeant of the Philippine Constabulary, while his mother, Julia Deloso, was a teacher. His parents were originally from Iloilo: his father was from Tigbauan, while his mother was from Dumangas. He is the eldest of five children, and the only one to grow up to become a police officer.

Nicolas Torre attended the Notre Dame of Marbel in his hometown for his elementary studies, and graduated as a valedictorian. At the Koronadal National Comprehensive High School, he graduated as a salutatorian. A beneficiary of a scholarship program by the Department of Science and Technology, Torre entered the Mapúa Institute of Technology's electronics and communications engineering program to accomplish the 72 prerequisite college academic units to be able to enroll in the Philippine National Police Academy (PNPA). He considered pursuing a career as an engineer instead but persisted with his original plan to enroll in the PNPA.

The elder Torre was assassinated in 1990 in Lutayan, Sultan Kudarat.

The younger Torre graduated from the PNPA in 1993 as part of the Tagapaglunsad Class.

- Chief of Directorial Staff, National Capital Region Police Office (NCRPO)
- Deputy Director for Operations, National Capital Region Police Office (NCRPO)
- Regional Director, Police Regional Office 11
- Director, PNP-CIDG
- Chief, PNP

Chief of the Philippine National Police

On May 29, 2025, President Bongbong Marcos chose Torre as the new PNP chief replacing Rommel Marbil. Torre is the first graduate of PNPA to be appointed as PNP Chief. The position has been previously filled by graduates from the Philippine Military Academy (PMA). He formally assumed office in June 2, 2025. Three days later, Torre began implementing a 5-minute response policy for PNP officials in Metro Manila. By June 9, Torre made an unprecedented courtesy visit to the Commission on Human Rights, where he affirmed the CHR's oversight function over the PNP by stating that "The CHR is our boss on the protection of human rights."

Our Guest Speaker

Continuation 3.

On July 20, 2025, Davao City acting mayor Sebastian Duterte on his Basta Dabawenyo podcast dared Torre to a fistfight after calling his three-minute policy an opportunity for police "harassment" in the city, with him calling Torre a "coward" and accusing him of kidnapping his father Rodrigo Duterte. Upon being informed of the dare by a UNTV reporter on July 23, Torre immediately accepted Duterte's challenge as an opportunity to hold a charity boxing match to raise funds for victims of recent floods. Torre later confirmed that the match would take place on July 27 at the Rizal Memorial Coliseum in Manila. However, Duterte later set conditions that Torre must persuade President Marcos to mandate hair follicle drug tests for all elected officials, with Duterte departing for Singapore on July 25 for a personal trip until July 29, stating it was long planned before the match and was approved by Interior and Local Government Secretary Jonvic Remulla on July 20. On July 27, Torre was declared the winner by default in the match after Duterte failed to appear.

Torre made a reorganization on August 6, 2025, which includes the reappointment of Deputy Chief for Administration Jose Melencio Nartatez as Area Police Command (APC) Western Mindanao commander. However on August 14, the National Police Commission (Napolcom) ran by concurrent interior secretary Jonvic Remulla ordered Torre to revise his reappointment modify the reassignment of 13 senior officers. The 18 regional directors of the PNP signed a manifesto in support of Torre and the chain of command in response to the Napolcom order, without explicitly mentioning the directive itself.

Our Guest Speaker

Continuation 4.

Torre introduced a five-minute response policy. Under said policy the police is mandated to respond to a 911 emergency call made anywhere nationwide within five minutes.

On August 26, 2025, Torre was officially relieved as Chief of the Philippine National Police (PNP) through an order signed by Executive Secretary Lucas Bersamin on behalf of President Marcos. The order, dated August 25, 2025, directed that Torre's relief was to take effect "immediately". The August 14 Napolcom directive was among the factors for his removal. His tenure only lasted in 85 days, making him the most shortest-serving PNP Chief.

Former Deputy Chief Nartatez was appointed as Officer in Charge of the PNP. Torre filed a leave of absence.

Metro Manila Development Authority

On December 19, 2025, Torre was appointed by President Bongbong Marcos as General Manager of the Metropolitan Manila Development Authority, replacing Procopio Lipana.

Law And Order

Remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work (Titus 3:1)

Ever since I learned to drive, I did my best to obey all traffic signs I saw (though I admit I broke some unintentionally). Yet I find it frustrating that other drivers or motorists defy traffic signs. For example, while I drove up to 60 km/hr on C5 as this is the speed limit, other drivers drove faster beyond the speed limit. I said angrily to myself, “That’s why we have traffic laws to prevent or reduce risks of road accidents!”.

Laws, especially traffic laws, are there not to reduce our freedom but to keep us safe from harm. Even the Bible preaches that, as what St. Paul preached in his Letter to Titus (Titus 3:1). We must then follow laws that our government imposes for as long as they promote human life and guarantee our security.

Let us then prove to be law-abiding citizens because we show respect to God, our country and our fellowmen when we obey laws in our society.
