Invocation

We thank you and worship you heavenly Father for all the blessings you continue to bestow upon each of us and our families. We are grateful as well for bringing us together this afternoon for our fellowship. Continue to inspire us to be agents of change in our society beset with so much politicking and corruption. During this era of so much fake news, make us instruments of truth and reconciliation. All these we ask of you through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of the Day

MY ROTARY DAY

(Adapted from “Beautiful Sunday”)

Thursday morning, I’m up and about
I think I’ll take a walk in the park
Hey, hey, hey, it’s a wonderful day

I’ve got someone waiting for me
When I see him I know that he’ll say
Hey, hey, hey, it’s our Rotary day

Hi, hi, hi, wonderful Thursday
This is my, my, my, Rotary day
When you say, say, say, say that you’ll meet me
Oh, hey, hey, hey it’s our Rotary day

Birds are singing, you by my side
Let’s take a car and go for a ride
Hey, hey, hey, it’s our Rotary day
We’ll drive on and follow the sun
Makin’ Thursday go on and on
Hey, hey, hey, it’s our Rotary day

Hi, hi, hi, wonderful Thursday
This is my, my, my, Rotary day
When you say, say, say, say that you’ll meet me
Oh, hey, hey, hey it’s our Rotary day

Hi, hi, hi, wonderful Thursday
This is my, my, my, Rotary day
When you say, say, say, say that you’ll meet me
Oh, hey, hey, hey it’s our Rotary day

John F. Kennedy -

What a blessed month to start our Rotary Year.

First, Congratulations is in order to our IPP Roy Quejada for being adjudged as Most Outstanding Club President with Distinction and our Rotary Club of Pasig as Most Outstanding Club with Distinction given by our District 3800 leadership. These honors is not for single person only but for all of us. For all those who joined our service projects, for donations shared to us and your time spent for our community. Service Above Self is our guide and the recognition is our reward.

Second, a heartfelt thanks for all those who helped and gave their, talent and support for our very successful and smooth flow of our Induction Ceremonies last July 21. Thank you very much PP/HOF John and your team including our service providers and other people behind the scenes. Pinakita natin sa buong Distrito kung ano ang RC Pasig – nagkakaisa, masaya at may puso sa paglilingkod.

Lastly, thank you to all Rotarians and spouses who joined our induction. You came in full force. Thankyou also for those who paid their annual dues, sponsors in our souvenir program. We hope to see you more often to our regular meeting and fellowship.

From the President

Continuation

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

When I texted Pres Jun that after several years of writing this column, I would request for a replacement. His reply was it make take some time like an impeachment proceedings. When I mentioned many can do better, he said to test the water first. Adjustment for me is very hard. Short of 35 days to celebrate our 60th wedding anniversary, my spouse Pura died. A day after her inurnment, I attended our Induction Night with my youngest daughter. What more supportive move can this show?

Last Sunday, going to the 11:30 am mass at the VVCC, I met an elderly looking man who called me Benny. I held both his arm and told him I am good in remembering names and faces but I could not remember him. He said he was PP Del Viola. I told him badly, "Del, you look older than me and I am already 90. He sadly told me he was 78." At this stage, let me tell you readers what you get out from the Republic of RC Pasig. You will not grow older and worrisome. Fellowship can make you feel younger and have more vigor in your activities.

When IPP Roy gave his awards for a good year, he did not recognize the work of the bulletin team of HOF/PP Peter. But he was proud the district gave us 3rd place for the weekly Tinig. Can we have rules of any contest before the contest begins? We were just awarded without our knowing the rules.

Since a new team will take over the Tinig, may the new team and the Board spell out what must be done?

Years before, our club was truly vibrant. Now, a good forty percent are RINOs, Rotarians In Name Only. Before, attendance was truly enforced, now no more. But the more more noticeable absence in many activities are our spouses. Before, we had the ARAP or Association of the Rotary Anns of Pasig. Our spouses then were called Rotary Anns.

Last wake of my spouse, two former active Rotary Anns were there. Gigi Carlos (widow of former Rotarians Doding Carlos) with son, Jigs and wife and Susan Grau with spouse, former Rotarians Ed. If the other oldtimers had known, I am sure they would have gone to the wake too. Gone are the days of our Rotary Anns. For the oldtimers, we called Ed Grau Superman for he was a look alike. He still has the looks but he is Super Big now.

Can the Pangkat system do something? Make sure your members attend even once a month to improve our attendance percentage. Look at the travel time of PP Vic A. And he is always amongst the first to come every Thursday and to any other club affairs. And CM/PP Peping, always in his wheelchair but always around.

Belated birthday greetings to Rtn Ping whose many projects will make you proud of him. HOF/PP Jess must have something very urgent to attend to as he missed our grand affair. Congratulations to your many accomplishments Doc Jess. You make us proud.

President Yinka answers the call

Shaped by his native land, the 2026-27 president carries the dynamic spirit of Nigeria with him to Rotary leadership

Olayinka H. Babalola makes his way to the front row. This is it. It's showtime, the moment that Yinka, as he's called — the 2026-27 Rotary International president, the second from Nigeria, the second from all of Africa for that matter — will make his debut to the Rotary world.

It's the first morning of Rotary's International Assembly, a training event for incoming district governors held every winter in Orlando, Florida. Babalola's already miked up for the speech he'll give, the session's main event. But first, he prepares to participate in the opening flag ceremony, a tradition at Rotary events.

He joins 2025-26 RI President Francesco Arezzo of Italy and Larry Lunsford of the United States, who will serve after Babalola. The three walk onstage, hoisting their countries' flags. A singer belts out the U.S. national anthem. Then, the Italian district governors-elect join Arezzo onstage to sing "Il Canto degli Italiani."

Finally, it's Babalola's turn. He steps forward and stands taller, his glittery green-and-white striped hat matching his country's flag. Peace Udoka Anyira, a Nigerian Canadian Rotarian, steps onstage and sings:

Nigeria, we hail thee,
Our own dear native land,

Walking the Avenues

PP Ramy Garcia IV

Continuation 1.

Though tribes and tongues may differ,
In brotherhood we stand
Nigerians all, are proud to serve
Our sovereign Motherland.

Babalola sings along too, and as he does, a tear rolls down his cheek.

“You hear a lot of bad stories about Nigeria, but today, the story is not a bad story,” he says afterward, choking up with emotion. He takes off his glasses and wipes his eyes. “The flag of this country is being raised amongst people of goodwill — good people from more than 100 countries, for a good cause.” As of 1 July, Babalola will lead them.

A born leader

Babalola’s leadership journey began early. The eldest of six children, he was born in Ibadan, one of the largest cities in Nigeria. His mother was a teacher and his father an accountant. “From my part of the world, when you’re the first child, that has some leadership responsibilities,” he says.

He went to college at what was then called the Federal University of Technology in Bauchi, an ethnically diverse city in the north where Nigeria’s savanna woodlands begin to give way to the semiarid Sahel on the edge of the Sahara. The school’s public image director, a member of the Rotary Club of Bauchi, asked him during his second year if he’d help organize a Rotaract club. Babalola became the club’s charter president.

After earning his degree in electronics engineering, Babalola completed a year in the National Youth Service Corps. Aiming to bridge ethnic and religious divides, members of the corps serve in states other than their own. Babalola was posted to Port Harcourt in Rivers state, where the French tire manufacturer Michelin had requested electronics engineering graduates to help retool its equipment.

Before arriving in Port Harcourt, Babalola joined other newly mobilized corps members at an orientation camp. He figured since they were all fresh out of university, there must be Rotaractors among them. He posted a notice and gathered everybody together. “We started a mini Rotaract fellowship while in camp,” he recalls.

Then in Port Harcourt, Babalola joined the Rotaract Club of Trans Amadi, an industrial area of the city where Michelin was located. With other Rotaract corps members, he volunteered at a facility for children with disabilities that was supported by the Rotary Club of Port Harcourt.

When his mandatory service was over, Babalola landed a job with the Nigerian branch of the Shell oil company. Only in his mid-20s, he was beginning to outgrow his Rotaract club; his job gave him the privilege of a better income than others his age. The next logical step, he thought, was to join Rotary, where he could find inspiration from successful older members. “I wanted to be in a place where I could aspire to other things,” he says.

But when he went to a meeting of the Rotary Club of Trans Amadi and said he wanted to join, club members were stunned.

PP Ramy Garcia IV

Continuation 3.

One Rotarian erupted: “What’s wrong with this young man? You think this is how you join Rotary?” But another Rotarian volunteered to be his sponsor, later becoming a mentor. “If that man hadn’t spoken up for me, maybe I wouldn’t be here,” Babalola reflects. “I may have left the place and never considered joining Rotary, and that would have been the end of it.”

In Rotary, Babalola found career mentors, including the chief operating officer of Shell Nigeria. “There are some people who when you see their signature on a letter addressed to you, it means only two things: You’ve been promoted or you’ve been sacked,” he says. “That’s the kind of person he was.” Another executive in the Nigerian oil industry also took Babalola under his wing when his father died.

But most of all, he found a place to grow up. “At 27, you have some money in your pocket, you’re single, you’re a boy, you can imagine the kind of things that will be on your mind,” he says. “But because I was in Rotary, that didn’t happen for me. People are talking about taxation; they’re talking about the budget. They’re talking about real estate, about investment opportunities, and suddenly somebody is telling you what you need to do with your money.”

Through Rotary, Babalola also met his wife, Precy, the first female president of her university’s Rotaract club in Port Harcourt. She pulled back from Rotary when their children were young, rejoining in 2018. Today she is a lawyer and a member of the Rotary Club of Port Harcourt Passport.

4. Be fair in all dealings with others and treat them with the respect due to them as fellow human beings
5. Promote recognition and respect for all occupations which are useful to society
6. Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community
