Song of the Day

HIS WAY

(Adapted from My Way)

And now his term will end
And so he's called his final meeting
A fellowship it will be
With lechon, pizza and fries aplenty
He's led us to another year
As president pang fifty six
And so, we all now know
Roy had his own way

Regrets, he's had his share
Just like the fifty five PPs
His messages were meaningful
Pag president's time at sa Tinig
Lagi sa focus niya
Ang flagship projects ng RC Pasig
And so, we all now know
Roy had his own way

Yes, there were times we're sure he knew
When he bit off much more than he could chew
But through it all when there was doubt
He gave it up and threw it out
He faced it all and he stood tall
Roy had his own way

Song of the Day

Continuation 1.

He's loved, he's laughed and cried
He's had his fill, his share of winning
And now, as his year ends
He finds it all so much rewarding
To think he did his role and as we know but in his own way
Oh yes, oh yes, that him
Roy is his nick name

For what is a man, what has he got
If not himself, then he has not
To do the things he truly wants
Not jusy by words but by good deeds
The record shows he did it all
But in his own way

Yes...Roy had his own way

From the President

Pres. Roy Quejada

A Recognition Shared by the Entire Club

One of the highlights of the closing weeks of this Rotary year was learning that the Rotary Club of Pasig has been nominated for the Outstanding Stakeholder Award in line with the 31st Police Community Relations Month of the National Police Commission.

Our Pagpupugay sa Kabayanihan ng Pasig PNP project was endorsed by the Eastern Police District and presented to the National Police Commission as one of the outstanding stakeholder initiatives in support of our police force.

Last Tuesday, I had the privilege of representing RC Pasig during the interview with the National Police Commission. One of the questions asked was why our club chose to establish this recognition program.

I shared that this project was made possible through the vision and generosity of our benefactor, Rtn. Chony Gimenez, who believed that our men and women in uniform deserve to be recognized for their courage, dedication, and faithful service. I also shared that Peacebuilding and Conflict Prevention is one of Rotary International's Areas of Focus, making this initiative a meaningful expression of Rotary's mission to build stronger and safer communities.

For me, this nomination is something our entire club can truly be proud of. It is a reminder that when we work together with purpose, our service can be recognized not only within Pasig but even at the national level.

From the President

Pres. Roy Quejada

Continuation 1.

As I prepare to step down as President, this recognition will always have a special place in my heart. More than the nomination itself, I will remember the unity of our members in supporting this project and our shared desire to honor those who protect our community.

Would also like to share that the presidency has also deepened my understanding of Rotary. It gave greater meaning to the words “Service Above Self” and reminded me that giving back is not measured by how much we give, but by the sincerity with which we serve.

To every member of RC Pasig, thank you for your trust, encouragement, and support throughout this Rotary year. Maraming maraming salamat po. Whatever recognition comes our way, this will always be a shared accomplishment of our club.

Rotary Notes

PP Benny P. De Guzman

Today ends the medal of merits for a very good Rotary Year for our club. To Pres. Roy and his team, salamuch for a good year. In all aspects, except one, attendance in our weekly meetings, you did well. The big bash will spell the club's appreciation. And, open our eyes to once a month, or, every other month evening specials.

Next week, before PP/IP Jun takes over officially, he already will preside regular meeting.

With his vast experience, IP Jun's team will show his style of leadership. It will be nice, this time, that I watch from the sidelines as I am definitely hanging my gloves in writing my column. Tagal na, hirap na si HOF/ PP Peter mag edit.

Speaking of hirap na, how HOF/PP Peter had great difficulty in his walking as his legs are not cooperating. So the value of ingat is well emphasized. As we grow older, the parts are harder to take care of, and, harder to restore, or, even to replace. Like and old car, the older, the harder to replace parts. Ingat is the name of the game.

Last Father's Day, I had the rare honor of receiving a text from the son of our late 13th President, Tom Portillo, who texted me, Happy Father's Day for being our second dad from TVP Patrol. Of course, TVP means Tom Vergara Portillo. It also mean The Very Personal Company that Tom founded in his name and for a good password for his one product company. Imagine what the late PP Teddy Yabut calls, the Hand to Mouth business that a single product line can be that profitable? Being called the second dad was so honorable as being adoptive member, the TVP Company becomes an exclusive Portillo Company as I am the only outsider in this venture of Tom. Imagine doing 1.5M a Day!!!

So many honors are being given to PP Nick that started recognition when he was made a Fellow of Pierre Fauchard Academy. After his name are, DMD, MMPHA, FPFA, and, as Dean of National University, he had 100% passing for the Dental Board, and, for Dental Hygiene Licensure Exams where the 1st, 3rd and 5th spots were taken by his graduates. This will surely invite more students for both courses. Galing mo man. Another Grand Slam mo, I will move that your Guzman must have a DE before it. I can expect Nick, DE, denidemonio mo naman ako, baka malas na good streak ko

HOF/PP Jesse has dual awards that enriched our reaching out. The Global Grand, and, another District Award to assist the community.

If Pres. Roy failed to ask all Pangkat Leaders to have a text brigade for the meeting today, expect not more than 40 to attend the big affair. About 4 or 5 will still be there this noon. Especially those not regular in attending our regular meetings.

As I am firm in not doing my Notes anymore, the only request I can handle is to write up to the time of his formal induction.

We missed out in greeting our member, Mayor Vico, on his birthday last week. He is doing great for our City but pati si VM Dudut in not showing up. Even our Konsi is less seen in our meetings. Lately, Cong Roman is noticed in our projects. A Rotarian quoted the hygiene kit donation by our Rtn Bien as FP siya. Malayo pa siguro.

2026 General Secretary Report to Convention Rotary in review: 2025-26

This year, Rotary members were invited to Unite for Good, using the power we have together to build a better world. As our members keep making a positive difference and raising awareness of Rotary — locally and globally — we continue to increase our impact and identify new opportunities for growth.

— General Secretary John Hewko

Membership: Enhancing the experience

This year, Rotary worked to grow our membership while prioritizing and supporting engaging club experiences. Clubs such as the Rotary Club of Global ROOTS - District 2101 in Italy are focusing on members' wants and needs, such as service opportunities, mentorship, and hybrid meetings. Our organization also remains dedicated to increasing the value of membership.

Service: Making a positive difference

This year, Rotary members showed that we are people of action, uniting for good. From creating rain gardens that can filter up to 90% of pollutants in Texas, USA, to training more than 1,300 people to recognize suicide risk and intervene in Lithuania, Rotary projects are making a real, lasting difference.

Programs: Creating lasting change

Rotary's programs reflect our priorities as an organization and demonstrate that together, we create positive change around the world. Whether it's peacebuilding, supporting young leaders, or creating a lasting impact through our Programs of Scale, Rotary programs continue to engage communities globally.

The Rotary Foundation: Doing good globally

The Rotary Foundation is expanding its ability to do good, transforming the generous gifts of donors into service projects that change lives both close to home and around the world.

Rotary's reach: Maintaining a global presence

We are committed to sharing Rotary stories and expanding our reach worldwide. From annual events like World Polio Day and the Rotary International Convention to sharing our members' stories on platforms that reach countries across the globe, Rotary continues to reach and inspire people everywhere.

Public image: Sharing who we are

This year, we worked to strengthen Rotary's brand and tell the world who we are. From members using the Brand Center to effectively share their stories to Rotary launching a new social media channel, we're increasing people's understanding of Rotary and inspiring prospective members to join us.

Technology: Improving the user experience

Rotary is dedicated to innovation and improving our technology. Whether that's using AI to make our materials more accessible or adopting a system to better connect with prospective members, we're always seeking to upgrade the user experience.

10 Tips for a Calmer, Easier Life

1. Don't Worry!
 - Worry is the least productive of all human emotions.
2. Don't be preoccupied by fear.
 - Most of the things we fear never actually happen!
3. Don't hold grudges.
 - They're some of the biggest and most unnecessary, weights we carry with us during our lives.
4. Face one problem at a time.
 - The only way to handle things properly is to handle them one by one.
5. Don't take problems to bed.
 - They are unhealthy companions for good sleep and rest.
6. Don't take on other people's problems.
 - They are better equipped to handle their problems than you.
7. Don't live in the past.
 - It will always be in your memory, but don't cling to it. Focus on what's happening in your life right now. This will allow you to be happy in the present.

Tinig Tidbits

By: HOF/PP Peter Javier

Continuation 1.

8. Be a good listener.
 - Only by listening do we learn to interpret and understand ideas that differ to our own.
9. Don't let frustration ruin you.
 - Self-pity interferes with positive action more than anything else. It prevents us from moving on with our lives.
10. Count your blessings.
 - Keep even the smallest of blessings in your memory. Many smaller blessings can add up to a larger one.
